Sec. 801.1 Definitions.

When used in the act and these rules--

(a)(1) Person. Except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Sec. 801.12, the term person means an ultimate parent entity and all entities which it controls directly or indirectly.

Examples: 1. In the case of corporations, ``person" encompasses the entire corporate structure, including all parent corporations, subsidiaries and divisions (whether consolidated or unconsolidated, and whether incorporated or unincorporated), and all related corporations under common control with any of the foregoing.

2. Corporations A and B are each directly controlled by the same foreign state. They are not included within the same ``person," although the corporations are under common control, because the foreign state which controls them is not an ``entity" (see Sec. 801.1(a)(2)). Corporations A and B* are the ultimate parent entities within persons ``A", and ``B" which include any entities each may control.

* Throughout the examples to the rules, persons are designated (``A", ``B," etc.) with quotation marks, and entities are designated (A, B, etc.) without quotation marks.
-----

3. Since a natural person is an entity (see Sec. 801.1(a)(2)), a natural person and a corporation which he or she controls are part of the same ``person." If that natural person controls two otherwise separate corporations, both corporations and the natural person are all part of the same ``person."

4. See the example to Sec. 801.2(a).

(2) Entity. The term entity means any natural person, corporation, company, partnership, joint venture, association, joint-stock company, trust, estate of a deceased natural person, foundation, fund, institution, society, union, or club, whether incorporated or not, wherever located and of whatever citizenship, or any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy or similar official or any liquidating agent for any of the foregoing, in his or her capacity as such; or any joint venture or other corporation which has not been formed but the acquisition of the voting securities or other interest in which, if already formed, would require notification under the act and these rules: Provided, however, That the term ``entity" shall not include any foreign state, foreign government, or agency thereof (other than a corporation engaged in commerce), nor the United States, any of the States thereof, or any political subdivision or agency of either (other than a corporation engaged in commerce).

(3) Ultimate parent entity. The term ultimate parent entity means an entity which is not controlled by any other entity.

Examples: 1. If corporation A holds 100 percent of the stock of subsidiary B, and B holds 75 percent of the stock of its subsidiary C, corporation A is the ultimate parent entity, since it controls subsidiary B directly and subsidiary C indirectly, and since it is the entity within the person which is not controlled by any other entity.

2. If corporation A is controlled by natural person D, natural person D is the ultimate parent entity.

3. P and Q are the ultimate parent entities within persons ``P" and ``Q." If P and Q each own 50 percent of the voting securities of R, then P and Q are both ultimate parents of R, and R is part of both persons ``P" and ``Q."

(b) Control. The term control (as used in the terms control(s), controlling, controlled by and under common control with) means:

(1) Either. (i) Holding 50 percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of an issuer or (ii) In the case of an entity that has no outstanding voting securities, having the right to 50 percent or more of the profits of the entity, or having the right in the event of dissolution to 50 percent or more of the assets of the entity; or

(2) Having the contractual power presently to designate 50 percent or more of the directors of a corporation, or in the case of unincorporated entities, of individuals exercising similar functions.

Examples: 1. Corporation A holds 100 percent of the stock of corporation B, 75 percent of the stock of corporation C, 50 percent of the stock of corporation D, and 30 percent of the stock of corporation E. Corporation A controls corporations B, C and D, but not corporation E. Corporation A is the ultimate parent entity of a person comprised of corporations A, B, C and D, and each of these corporations (but not corporation E) is ``included within the person."

2. A statutory limited partnership agreement provides as follows: The general partner ``A" is entitled to 50 percent of the partnership profits, ``B" is entitled to 40 percent of the profits and ``C" is entitled to 10 percent of the profits. Upon dissolution, ``B" is entitled to 75 percent of the partnership assets and ``C" is entitled to 25 percent of those assets. All limited and general partners are entitled to vote on the following matters: the dissolution of the partnership, the transfer of assets not in the ordinary course of business, any change in the nature of the business, and the removal of the general partner. The interest of each partner is evidenced by an ownership certificate that is transferable under the terms of the partnership agreement and is subject to the Securities Act of 1933. For purposes of these rules, control of this partnership is determined by subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph. Although partnership interests may be securities and have some voting rights attached to them, they do not entitle the owner of that interest to vote for a corporate ``director" or ``an individual exercising similar functions" as required by Sec. 801.1(f)(1) below. Thus control of a partnership is not determined on the basis of either subparagraph (1)(i) or (2) of this paragraph. Consequently, ``A" is deemed to control the partnership because of its right to 50 percent of the partnership's profits. ``B" is also deemed to control the partnership because it is entitled to 75 percent of the partnership's assets upon dissolution.

3. ``A" is a nonprofit charitable foundation that has formed a partnership joint venture with ``B," a nonprofit university, to establish C, a nonprofit hospital corporation that does not issue voting securities. Pursuant to its charter all surplus revenue from the hospital in excess of expenses and necessary capital investments is to be disbursed evenly to ``A" and ``B." In the event of dissolution of the hospital corporation, the assets of the hospital are to be contributed to a local charitable medical facility then in need of financial assistance. Notwithstanding the hospital's designation of its disbursement funds as surplus rather than profits to maintain its charitable image, ``A" and ``B" would each be deemed to control C, pursuant to Sec.

801.1(b)(1)(ii), because each is entitled to 50 percent of the excess of the hospital's revenues over expenditures.

4. ``A" is entitled to 50 percent of the profits of partnership B and 50 percent of the profits of partnership C. B and C form a partnership E with ``D" in which each entity has a right to one-third of the profits. When E acquires company X, ``A" must report the transaction (assuming it is otherwise reportable). Pursuant to Sec. 801.1(b)(1)(ii), E is deemed to be controlled by ``A," even though ``A" ultimately will receive only one-third of the profits of E. Because B and C are considered as part of ``A," the rules attribute all profits to which B and C are entitled (two-thirds of the profits of E in this example) to ``A.'

(c) Hold. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) (2) through (8) of this section, the term hold (as used in the terms hold(s), holding, holder and held) means beneficial ownership, whether direct, or indirect through fiduciaries, agents, controlled entities or other means.

Example: If a stockbroker has stock in ``street name" for the account of a natural person, only the natural person (who has beneficial ownership) and not the stockbroker (which may have record title) ``holds" that stock.

(2) The holdings of spouses and their minor children shall be holdings of each of them.

(3) Except for a common trust fund or collective investment fund within the meaning of 12 CFR 9.18(a) (both of which are hereafter referred to in this paragraph as ``collective investment funds"), and any revocable trust or an irrevocable trust in which the settlor retains a reversionary interest in the corpus, a trust, including a pension trust, shall hold all assets and voting securities constituting the corpus of the trust.

Example: Under this paragraph the trust--and not the trustee--``holds" the voting securities and assets constituting the corpus of any irrevocable trust (in which the settlor retains no reversionary interest, and which is not a collective investment fund). Therefore, the trustee need not aggregate its holdings of any other assets or voting securities with the holdings of the trust for purposes of determining whether the requirements of the act apply to an acquisition by the trust. Similarly, the trustee, if making an acquisition for its own account, need not aggregate its holdings with those of any trusts for which it serves as trustee. (However, the trustee must aggregate any collective investment funds which it administers; see paragraph (c)(6) of this section.)

(4) The assets and voting securities constituting the corpus of a revocable trust or the corpus of an irrevocable trust in which the settlor(s) retain(s) a reversionary interest in the corpus shall be holdings of the settlor(s) of such trust.

(5) Except as provided in paragraph (c)(4) of this section, beneficiaries of a trust, including a pension trust or a collective investment fund, shall not hold any assets or voting securities constituting the corpus of such trust.

(6) A bank or trust company which administers one or more collective investment funds shall hold all assets and voting securities constituting the corpus of each such fund.

Example: Suppose A, a bank or trust company, administers collective investment funds W, X, Y and Z. Whenever person "A" is to make an acquisition, whether or not on behalf of one or more of the funds, it must aggregate the holdings of W, X, Y and Z in determining whether the requirements of the act apply to the acquisition.

(7) An insurance company shall hold all assets and voting securities held for the benefit of any general account of, or any separate account administered by, such company.

(8) A person holds all assets and voting securities held by the entities included within it; in addition to its own holding, an entity holds all assets and voting securities held by the entities which it controls directly or indirectly.

(d) Affiliate. An entity is an affiliate of a person if it is controlled, directly or indirectly, by the ultimate parent entity of such person.

(e)(1)(i) United States person. The term United States person means a person the ultimate parent entity of which-- (A) Is incorporated in the United States, is organized under the laws of the United States or has its principal offices within the United States; or

(B) If a natural person, either is a citizen of the United States or resides in the United States.

(ii) United States issuer. The term United States issuer means an issuer which is incorporated in the United States, is organized under the laws of the United States or has its principal offices within the United States.

(2)(i) Foreign person. The term foreign person means a person the ultimate parent entity of which--

(A) Is not incorporated in the United States, is not organized under the laws of the United States and does not have its principal offices within the United States; or

(B) If a natural person, neither is a citizen of the United States nor resides in the United States.

(ii) Foreign issuer. The term foreign issuer means an issuer which is not incorporated in the United States, is not organized under the laws of the United States and does not have its principal offices within the United States.

(f)(1) Voting securities. The term voting securities means any securities which at present or upon conversion entitle the owner or holder thereof to vote for the election of directors of the issuer, or of an entity included within the same person as the issuer, or, with respect to unincorporated entities, individuals exercising similar functions.

(2) Convertible voting security. The term convertible voting security means a voting security which presently does not entitle its owner or holder to vote for directors of any entity.

(3) Conversion. The term conversion means the exercise of a right inherent in the ownership or holding of particular voting securities to exchange such securities for securities which presently entitle the owner or holder to vote for directors of the issuer or of any entity included within the same person as the issuer.

Examples: 1. The acquisition of convertible debentures which are convertible into common stock is an acquisition of "voting securities." However, Sec. 802.31 exempts the acquisition of such securities from the requirements of the act, provided that they have no present voting rights.

2. Options and warrants are also "voting securities" for purposes of the act, because they can be exchanged for securities with present voting rights. Section 802.31 exempts the acquisition of options and warrants as well, since they do not themselves have present voting rights and hence are convertible voting securities. Notification may be required prior to exercising options and warrants, however.

3. Assume that X has issued preferred shares which presently entitle the holder to vote for directors of X, and that these shares are convertible into common shares of X. Because the preferred shares confer a present right to vote for directors of X, they are "voting securities." (See Sec. 801.1(f)(1).) They are not "convertible voting securities," however, because the definition of that term excludes securities which confer a present right to vote for directors of any entity. (See Sec. 801.1(f)(2).) Thus, an acquisition of these preferred shares issued by X would not be exempt as an acquisition of "convertible voting securities." (See Sec. 802.31.) If the criteria in Section 7A(a) are met, an acquisition of X's preferred shares would be subject to the reporting and waiting period requirements of the Act. Moreover, the conversion of these preferred shares into common shares of X would also be potentially reportable, since the holder would be exercising a right to exchange particular voting securities for different voting securities having a present right to vote for directors of the issuer. Because this exchange would be a "conversion," Sec. 801.30 would apply. (See Sec. 801.30(a)(6).)

(g)(1) Tender offer. The term tender offer means any offer to purchase voting securities which is a tender offer within the meaning of section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78n.

(2) Cash tender offer. The term cash tender offer means a tender offer in which cash is the only consideration offered to the holders of the voting securities to be acquired.

(3) Non-cash tender offer. The term non-cash tender offer means any tender offer which is not a cash tender offer.

(h) Notification threshold. The term "notification threshold" means:

(1) An aggregate total amount of voting securities and assets of the acquired person valued at greater than $50 million but less than $100 million;

(2) An aggregate total amount of voting securities and assets of the acquired person valued at $100 million or greater but less than $500 million;

(3) An aggregate total amount of voting securities and assets of the acquired person valued at $500 million or greater;

(4) Twenty-five percent of the outstanding voting securities of an issuer if valued at greater than $1 billion; or

(5) Fifty percent of the outstanding voting securities of an issuer if valued at greater than $50 million.

Examples: 1. Person "A" will acquire 10 percent of the voting securities of corporation "B" for $60 million. "A" would indicate the $50 million notification threshold. "A" later will acquire all of the outstanding voting securities of "B" and will hold as a result voting securities of "B" valued at $600 million. "A" would indicate the 50 percent notification threshold for the later filing, even though the $100 million and $500 million notification thresholds would also be crossed as a result of the acquisition.

2. Person "A" will acquire 26 percent of the voting securities of corporation "B" for $550 million. "A" files for the $500 million notification threshold. Later "A" will acquire an additional 20 percent of the voting securities of "B" and as a result will hold 46 percent of the voting securities of "B" valued at $1.1 billion. "A" is now required to file for the 25 percent notification threshold despite the fact that it already holds in excess of 25 percent of the voting securities of "B" prior to the current acquisition. The 25 percent threshold is crossed when as the result of an acquisition, 25 percent or more, but less than 50 percent, of an issuer's voting securities are held and those securities are valued in excess of $1 billion.

(i)(1) Solely for the purpose of investment. Voting securities are held or acquired ``solely for the purpose of investment" if the person holding or acquiring such voting securities has no intention of participating in the formulation, determination, or direction of the basic business decisions of the issuer.

Example: If a person holds stock ``solely for the purpose of investment" and thereafter decides to influence or participate in management of the issuer of that stock, the stock is no longer held ``solely for the purpose of investment."

(2) Investment assets. The term investment assets means cash, deposits in financial institutions, other money market instruments, and instruments evidencing government obligations.

(j) Engaged in manufacturing. A person is ``engaged in manufacturing" if it produces and derives annual sales or revenues in excess of $1 million from products within industries 2000-3999 as coded in the Standard Industrial Classification Manual (1987 edition) published by the Executive Office of the President, Office of Management and Budget.

(k) United States. The term United States shall include the several States, the territories, possessions, and commonwealths of the United States, and the District of Columbia

(l) Commerce. The term commerce shall have the meaning ascribed to that term in Section 1 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. 12, or Section 4 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. 44.

(m) The act. References to “the act” refer to Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, as added by section 201 of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, Pub. L. 94-435, 90 Stat. 1390, and as amended by Pub. L. No. 106-553, 114 Stat. 2762. References to “Section 7A( )” refer to subsections of Section 7A of the Clayton Act. References to “this section” refer to the section of these rules in which the term appears.

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34429, July 29, 1983; 52 FR 20063, May 29, 1987]

Sec. 801.2 Acquiring and acquired persons.

(a) Any person which, as a result of an acquisition, will hold voting securities or assets, either directly or indirectly, or through fiduciaries, agents, or other entities acting on behalf of such person, is an acquiring person.

Example: Assume that corporations A and B, which are each ultimate parent entities of their respective “persons,” created a joint venture, corporation V, and that each holds half of V’s shares. Therefore, A and B each control V (see Sec. 801.1(b)), and V is included within two persons, “A” and “B.” Under this section, if V is to acquire corporation X, both “A” and “B” are acquiring persons.

(b) Except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Sec. 801.12, the person(s) within which the entity whose assets or voting securities are being acquired is included, is an acquired person.

Examples: 1. Assume that person “Q” will acquire voting securities of corporation X held by “P” and that X is not included within person “P.” Under this section, the acquired person is the person within which X is included, and is not “P.”

2. In the example to paragraph (a) of this section, if V were to be acquired by X, then both “A” and “B” would be acquired persons.

(c) For purposes of the act and these rules, a person may be an acquiring person and an acquired person with respect to separate acquisitions which comprise a single transaction.

(d)(1)(i) Mergers and consolidations are transactions subject to the act and shall be treated as acquisitions of voting securities.

(ii) In a merger, the person which, after consummation, will include the corporation in existence prior to consummation which is designated as the surviving corporation in the plan, agreement, or certificate of merger required to be filed with State authorities to effectuate the transaction shall be deemed to have made an acquisition of voting securities.

(2)(i) Any person party to a merger or consolidation is an acquiring person if, as a result of the transaction, such person will hold any assets or voting securities which it did not hold prior to the transaction.

(ii) Any person party to a merger or consolidation is an acquired person if, as a result of the transaction, the assets or voting securities of any entity included within such person will be held by any other person.

(iii) All persons party to a transaction as a result of which all parties will lose their separate pre-acquisition identities shall be both acquiring and acquired persons.

Examples: 1. Corporation A (the ultimate parent entity included within person ``A") proposes to acquire Y, a wholly-owned subsidiary of B (the ultimate parent entity included within person ``B"). The transaction is to be carried out by merging Y into X, a wholly-owned subsidiary of A, with X surviving, and by distributing the assets of X to B, the only shareholder of Y. The assets of X consist solely of cash and the voting securities of C, an entity unrelated to ``A" or ``B". Since X is designated the surviving corporation in the plan or agreement of merger or consolidation and since X will be included in ``A" after consummation of the transaction, ``A" will be deemed to have made an acquisition of voting securities. In this acquisition, ``A" is an acquiring person because it will hold assets or voting securities it did not hold prior to the transaction, and ``B" is an acquired person because the assets or the voting securities of an entity previously included within it will be held by A as a result of the acquisition. B will hold the cash and voting securities of C as a result of the transaction, but since Sec. 801.21 applies, this acquisition is not reportable. ``A" is therefore an acquiring person only, and ``B" is an acquired person only. ``B" may, however, have a separate reporting obligation as an acquiring person in a separate transaction involving the voting securities of C.

2. In the above example, suppose the consideration for Y consists of $8 million worth of the voting securities of A. With regard to the transfer of this consideration, ``B" is an acquiring person because it will hold voting securities it did not previously hold, and ``A" is an acquired person because its voting securities will be held by B. Since these voting securities are worth less than $50 million, however, the acquisition of these securities is not reportable. ``A" will therefore report as an acquiring person only and ``B" as an acquired person only.

3. In the above example, suppose that, as consideration for Y, A transfers to B a manufacturing plant valued at $51 million. ``B" is thus an acquiring person and ``A" an acquired person in a reportable acquisition of assets. ``A" and ``B" will each report as both an acquiring and an acquired person in this transaction because each occupies each role in a reportable acquisition.

4. Corporations A (the ultimate parent entity in person ``A") and B (the ultimate parent entity in person ``B") propose to consolidate into C, a newly formed corporation. All shareholders of A and B will receive shares of C, and both A and B will lose their separate pre-acquisition identities. ``A" and ``B" are both acquiring and acquired persons because they are parties to a transaction in which all parties lose their separate pre-acquisition identities.

(e) Whenever voting securities or assets are to be acquired from an acquiring person in connection with an acquisition, the acquisition of voting securities or assets shall be separately subject to the act.

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34431, July 29, 1983]

Sec. 801.3 Activities in or affecting commerce.

Section 7A(a)(1) is satisfied if any entity included within the acquiring person, or any entity included within the acquired person, is engaged in commerce or in any activity affecting commerce.

Examples: 1. A foreign subsidiary of a U.S. corporation seeks to acquire a foreign business. The acquiring person includes the U.S. parent corporation. If the U.S. corporation, or the foreign subsidiary, or any entity controlled by either one of them, is engaged in commerce or in any activity affecting commerce, Section 7A(a)(1) is satisfied. Note, however, that Secs. 802.50-802.52 may exempt certain acquisitions of foreign businesses or assets.

2. Even if none of the entities within the acquiring person is engaged in commerce or in any activity affecting commerce, the acquisition nevertheless satisfies Section 7A(a)(1) if any entity included within the acquired person is so engaged.

Sec. 801.4 Secondary acquisitions.

(a) Whenever as a result of an acquisition (the "primary acquisition") an acquiring person will obtain control of an issuer which holds voting securities of another issuer which it does not control, then the acquisition of the other issuer's voting securities is a secondary acquisition and is separately subject to the act and these rules.

(b) Exemptions. (1) No secondary acquisition shall be exempt from the requirements of the act solely because the related primary acquisition is exempt from the requirements of the act.

(2) A secondary acquisition may itself be exempt from the requirements of the act under Section 7A(c) or these rules.

Examples: 1. Assume that acquiring person "A" proposes to acquire all the voting securities of corporation B. This section provides that the acquisition of voting securities of issuers held but not controlled by B or by any entity which B controls are secondary acquisitions by "A." Thus, if B holds more than $50 million of the voting securities of corporation X (but does not control X), and "A" and "X" satisfy Sections 7A (a)(1) and (a)(2), "A" must file notification separately with respect to its secondary acquisition of voting securities of X. "X" must file notification within fifteen days (or in the case of a cash tender offer, 10 days) after ``A" files, pursuant to Sec. 801.30.

2. If in the previous example ``A" acquires only 50 percent of the voting securities of B, the result would remain the same. Since ``A" would be acquiring control of B, all of B's holdings in X would be attributable to ``A."

3. In the previous examples, if ``A's" acquisition of the voting securities of B is exempt, ``A" may still be required to file notification with respect to its secondary acquisition of the voting securities of X, unless that acquisition is itself exempt.

4. In the previous examples, assume A's acquisition of B is accomplished by merging B into A's subsidiary, S, and S is designated the surviving corporation. B's voting securities are cancelled, and B's shareholders are to receive cash in return. Since S is designated the surviving corporation and A will control S and also hold assets or voting securities it did not hold previously, ``A" is an acquiring person in an acquisition of voting securities by virtue of Secs. 801.2 (d)(1)(ii) and (d)(2)(i). A will be deemed to have acquired control of B, and A's resulting acquisition of the voting securities of X is a secondary acquisition. Since cash, the only consideration paid for the voting securities of B, is not considered an asset of the person from which it is acquired, by virtue of Sec. 801.2(d)(2) ``A" is an acquiring person only. The acquisition of the minority holding of B in X is therefore a secondary acquisition by ``A," but since ``B" is an acquired person only, ``B" is not deemed to make any secondary acquisition in this transaction.

5. In example 4 above, suppose the consideration paid by A for the acquisition of B is $60 million worth of the voting securities of A. By virtue of Sec. 801.2(d)(2), ``A" and ``B" are each both acquiring and acquired persons. A will still be deemed to have acquired control of B, and therefore the resulting acquisition of the voting securities of X is a secondary acquisition. Although ``B" is now also an acquiring person, unless B gains control of A in the transaction, B still makes no secondary acquisitions of stock held by A. If the consideration paid by A is the voting securities of one of A's subsidiaries and B thereby gains control of that subsidiary, B will make secondary acquisitions of any minority holdings of that subsidiary.

6. Assume that A and B propose through consolidation to create a new corporation, C, and that both A and B will lose their corporate identities as a result. Since no participating corporation in existence prior to consummation is the designated surviving corporation, ``A" and ``B" are each both acquiring and acquired persons by virtue of Sec. 801.2(d)(2)(iii). The acquisition of the minority holdings of entities within each are therefore potential secondary acquisitions by the other.

(c) Where the primary acquisition is--

(1) A cash tender offer, the waiting period procedures established for cash tender offers pursuant to Sections 7A(a) and 7A(e) of the act shall be applicable to both the primary acquisition and the secondary acquisition;

(2) A non-cash tender offer, the waiting period procedures established for tender offers pursuant to Section 7A(e)(2) of the act shall be applicable to both the primary acquisition and the secondary acquisition.

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34432, July 29, 1983; 52 FR 7080, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 801.10 Value of voting securities and assets to be acquired.

Except as provided in Sec. 801.13, the value of voting securities and assets to be acquired shall be determined as follows:

(a) Voting securities. (1) If the security is traded on a national securities exchange or is authorized to be quoted in an interdealer quotation system of a national securities association registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission--

(i) And the acquisition price has been determined, the value shall be the market price or the acquisition price, whichever is greater; or if

(ii) The acquisition price has not been determined, the value shall be the market price.

(2) If paragraph (a)(1) of this section is inapplicable--

(i) But the acquisition price has been determined, the value shall be the acquisition price; or if

(ii) The acquisition price has not been determined, the value shall be the fair market value.

(b) Assets. The value of assets to be acquired shall be the fair market value of the assets, or, if determined and greater than the fair market value, the acquisition price.

(c) For purposes of this section and Sec. 801.13(a)(2):

(1) Market price. (i) For acquisitions subject to Sec. 801.30, the market price shall be the lowest closing quotation, or, in an interdealer quotation system, the lowest closing bid price, within the 45 calendar days prior to the receipt of the notice required by Sec. 803.5(a) or prior to the consummation of the acquisition.

(ii) For acquisitions not subject to Sec. 801.30, the market price shall be the lowest closing quotation, or, in an interdealer quotation system, the lowest closing bid price, within the 45 or fewer calendar days which are prior to the consummation of the acquisition but not earlier than the day prior to the execution of the contract, agreement in principle or letter of intent to merge or acquire.

(iii) When the security was not traded within the period specified by this paragraph, the last closing quotation or closing bid price preceding such period shall be used. If such closing quotations are available in more than one market, the person filing notification may select any such quotation.

(2) Acquisition price. The acquisition price shall include the value of all consideration for such voting securities or assets to be acquired.

(3) Fair market value. The fair market value shall be determined in good faith by the board of directors of the ultimate parent entity included within the acquiring person, or, if unincorporated, by officials exercising similar functions; or by an entity delegated that function by such board or officials. Such determination must be made as of any day within 60 calendar days prior to the filing of the notification required by the act, or, if such notification has not been filed, within 60 calendar days prior to the consummation of the acquisition.

Example: Corporation A, the ultimate parent entity in person ``A," contracts to acquire assets of corporation B, and the contract provides that the acquisition price is not to be determined until after the acquisition is effected. Under paragraph (b) of this section, for purposes of the act, the value of the assets is to be the fair market value of the assets. Under paragraph (c)(3), the board of directors of corporation A must in good faith determine the fair market value. That determination will control for 60 days whether ``A" and ``B" must observe the requirements of the act; that is, ``A" and ``B" must either file notification or consummate the acquisition within that time. If ``A" and ``B" neither file nor consummate within 60 days, the parties would no longer be entitled to rely on the determination of fair market value, and, if in doubt about whether required to observe the requirements of the act, would have to make a second determination of fair market value.

Sec. 801.11 Annual net sales and total assets.

(a) The annual net sales and total assets of a person shall include all net sales and all assets held, whether foreign or domestic, except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section.

(b) Except for the total assets of a joint venture or other corporation at the time of its formation which shall be determined pursuant to Sec. 801.40(d) the annual net sales and total assets of a person shall be as stated on the financial statements specified in paragraph (c) of this section: Provided:

(1) That the annual net sales and total assets of each entity included within such person are consolidated therein. If the annual net sales and total assets of any entity included within the person are not consolidated in such statements, the annual net sales and total assets of the person filing notification shall be recomputed to include the nonduplicative annual net sales and nonduplicative total assets of each such entity; and

(2) That such statements, and any restatements pursuant to paragraph (b)(1) of this section (insofar as possible), have been prepared in accordance with the accounting principles normally used by such person, and are of a date not more than 15 months prior to the date of filing of the notification required by the act, or the date of consummation of the acquisition.

Example: Person ``A" is composed of entity A, subsidiaries B1 and B2 which A controls, subsidiaries C1 and C2 which B1 controls, and subsidiary C3 which B2 controls. Suppose that A's most recent financial statement consolidates the annual net sales and total assets of B1, C1, and C2, but not B2 or C3. In order to determine whether person ``A" meets the criteria of Section 7A(a)(2)(B), as either an acquiring or an acquired person, A must recompute its annual net sales and total assets to reflect consolidation of the nonduplicative annual net sales and nonduplicative total assets of B2 and C3.

(c) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section:

(1) The annual net sales of a person shall be as stated on the last regularly prepared annual statement of income and expense of that person; and

(2) The total assets of a person shall be as stated on the last regularly prepared balance sheet of that person.

Example: Suppose ``A" sells assets to ``B" on January 1. ``A's" next regularly prepared balance sheet, dated February 1, reflects that sale. On March 1, ``A" proposes to sell more assets to ``B." ``A's" total assets on March 1 are ``A's" total assets as stated on its February 1 balance sheet.

(d) No assets of any natural person or of any estate of a deceased natural person, other than investment assets, voting securities and other income-producing property, shall be included in determining the total assets of a person.

(e) Subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) of this section, the total assets of:

(1) An acquiring person that does not have the regularly prepared balance sheet described in paragraph (c)(2) of this section shall be, for acquisitions of each acquired person:

(i) All assets held by the acquiring person at the time of the acquisition,

(ii) Less all cash that will be used by the acquiring person as consideration in an acquisition of assets from, or in an acquisition of voting securities issued by, that acquired person (or an entity within that acquired person) and less all cash that will be used for expenses incidental to the acquisition, and less all securities of the acquired person (or an entity within that acquired person); and

(2) An acquired person that does not have the regularly prepared balance sheet described in paragraph (c)(2) of this section shall be either

(i) All assets held by the acquired person at the time of the acquisition, or

(ii) Where applicable, its assets as determined in accordance with Sec. 801.40(d).

Examples: For examples 1-4, assume that A is a newly-formed company which is not controlled by any other entity. Assume also that A has no sales and does not have the balance sheet described in paragraph (c)(2) of this section.

1. A will borrow $105 million in cash and will purchase assets from B for $100 million. In order to establish whether A's acquisition of B's assets is reportable, A's total assets are determined by subtracting the $100 million that it will use to acquire B's assets from the $105 million that A will have at the time of the acquisition. Therefore, A has total assets of $5 million and does not meet any size-of-person test of Section 7A(a)(2).

2. Assume that A will acquire assets from B and that, at the time it acquires B's assets, A will have $85 million in cash and a factory valued at $60 million. A will exchange the factory and $80 million cash for B's assets. To determine A's total assets, A should subtract from the $85 million cash the $80 million that will be used to acquire assets from B and add the remainder to the value of the factory. Thus, A has total assets of $65 million. Even though A will use the factory as part of the consideration for the acquisition, the value of the factory must still be included in A's total assets. Note that A and B may also have to report the acquisition by B of A's non-cash assets (i.e., the factory). For that acquisition, the value of the cash A will use to buy B's assets is not excluded from A's total assets. Thus, in the acquisition by B, A's total assets are $145 million.

3. Assume that company A will make a $150 million acquisition and that it must pay a loan origination fee of $5 million. A borrows $161 million. A does not meet the size-of-person test in Section 7A(a)(2) because its total assets are less than $10 million. $150 million is excluded because it will be consideration for the acquisition and $5 million is excluded because it is an expense incidental to the acquisition. Therefore, A is only a $6 million person. Note that if A were making an acquisition valued at over $200 million, the acquisition would be reportable without regard to the sizes of the persons involved.

4. Assume that "A" borrows $165 million to acquire $100 million of assets from "B" and $60 million of voting securities of "C." To determine its size for purposes of its acquisition from "B," "A" subtracts the $100 million that it will use for that acquisition. Therefore, A has total assets of $65 million for purposes of its acquisition from "B." To determine its size with respect to its acquisition from "C," "A" subtracts the $60 million that will be paid for "C's" voting securities. Thus, for purposes of its acquisition from "C," "A" has total assets of $105 million. In the first acquisition "A" meets the $10 million size-of-person test and in the second acquisition "A" meets the $100 million size-of-person test of Section 7A(a)(2).

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34429, July 29, 1983; 52 FR 7080, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 801.12 Calculating percentage of voting securities.

(a) Voting securities. Whenever the act or these rules require calculation of the percentage of voting securities to be held or acquired, the issuer whose voting securities are being acquired shall be deemed the "acquired persons."

Example: Person "A" is composed of corporation A1 and subsidiary A2; person "B" is composed of corporation B1 and subsidiary B2. Assume that A2 proposes to sell assets to B1 in exchange for common stock of B2. Under this paragraph, for purposes of calculating the percentage of voting securities to be held, the "acquired person" is B2. For all other purposes, the acquired person is "B." (For all purposes, the "acquiring persons" are "A" and "B.")

(b) Percentage of voting securities. (1) Whenever the act or these rules require calculation of the percentage of voting securities of an issuer to be held or acquired, the percentage shall be the sum of the separate ratios for each class of voting securities, expressed as a percentage. The ratio for each class of voting securities equals:

(i)(A) The number of votes for directors of the issuer which the holder of a class of voting securities is presently entitled to cast, and as a result of the acquisition, will become entitled to cast, divided by,

(B) The total number of votes for directors of the issuer which presently may be cast by that class, and which will be entitled to be cast by that class after the acquisition, multiplied by,

(ii)(A) The number of directors that class is entitled to elect, divided by (B) the total number of directors.

Examples: In each of the following examples company X has two classes of voting securities, class A, consisting of 1000 shares with each share having one vote, and class B, consisting of 100 shares with each share having one vote. The class A shares elect four of the ten directors and the class B shares elect six of the ten directors. In this situation, Sec. 801.12(b) requires calculations of the percentage of voting securities held to be made according to the following formula:

Number of votes of class A held divided by Total votes of class A times Directors elected by class A stock divided by Total number of directors

Plus

Number of votes of class B held divided by Total votes of class B times Directors elected by class B stock divided by Total number of directors

1. Assume that company Y holds all 100 shares of class B stock and no shares of class A stock. By virtue of its class B holdings, Y has all 100 of the votes which may be cast by class B stock and can elect six of company X's ten directors. Applying the formula which results from the rule, Y calculates that it holds  $100/100 \times 6/10$  or 60 percent of the voting securities of company X because of its holdings of class B stock and no additional percentage derived from holdings of class A stock. Consequently, Y holds a total of 60 percent of the voting securities of company X.

2. Assume that company Y holds 500 shares of class A stock and no shares of class B stock. By virtue of its class A holdings, Y has 500 of the 1000 votes which may be cast by class A to elect four of company X's ten directors. Applying the formula, Y calculates that it holds  $500/1000 \times 4/10$  or 20 percent of the voting securities of company X from its holdings of class A stock and no additional percentage derived from holdings of class B stock. Consequently, Y holds a total of 20 percent of the voting securities of company X.

3. Assume that company Y holds 500 shares of class A stock and 60 shares of class B stock. Y calculates that it holds 20 percent of the voting securities of company X because of its holdings of class A stock (see example 2). Additionally, as a result of its class B holdings Y has 60 of the 100 votes which may be cast by class B stock to elect six of company X's ten directors. Applying the formula, Y calculates that it holds  $60/100 \times 6/10$  or 36 percent of the voting securities of company X because of its holdings of class B stock. Since the formula requires that a person that holds different classes of voting securities of the same issuer add together the separate percentages calculated for each class, Y holds a total of 56 percent (20 percent plus 36 percent) of the voting securities of company X.

(2) Authorized but unissued voting securities and treasury voting securities shall not be considered securities presently entitled to vote for directors of the issuer.

(3) For purposes of determining the number of outstanding voting securities of an issuer, a person may rely upon the most recent information set forth in filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, unless such person knows or has reason to believe that the information contained therein is inaccurate.

Examples: 1. In the example to paragraph (a), to determine the percentage of B2's voting securities which will be held by ``A" after the transaction, all voting securities of B2 held by ``A," the ``acquiring person" (including A2 and all other entities included in person ``A"), must be aggregated. If ``A" holds convertible securities of B2 which meet the definition of voting securities in Sec. 801.1(f), these securities are to be disregarded in calculating the percentage of voting securities held by ``A."

2. Under this formula, any votes obtained by means of proxies from other persons are also disregarded in calculating the percentage of voting securities to be held or acquired.

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978; 43 FR 36054, Aug. 15, 1978, as amended at 52 FR 7081, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 801.13 Voting securities or assets to be held as a result of acquisition.

(a) Voting securities. (1) Subject to the provisions of Sec. 801.15, and paragraph (a)(3) of this section, all voting securities of the issuer which will be held by the acquiring person after the consummation of an acquisition shall be deemed voting securities held as a result of the acquisition. The value of such voting securities shall be the sum of the value of the voting securities to be acquired, determined in accordance with Sec. 801.10(a), and the value of the voting securities held by the acquiring person prior to the acquisition, determined in accordance with paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(2) The value of voting securities of an issuer held prior to an acquisition shall be--

(i) If the security is traded on a national securities exchange or is authorized to be quoted in an interdealer quotation system of a national securities association registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the market price calculated in accordance with Sec. 801.10(c)(1); or

(ii) If paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this section is not applicable, the fair market value determined in accordance with Sec. 801.10(c)(3).

Examples: 1. Assume that acquiring person ``A" holds $52 million of the voting securities of X, and is to acquire another $1 million of the same voting securities. Since under paragraph (a) of this rule all voting securities ``A" will hold after the acquisition are held ``as a result of" the acquisition, ``A" will hold $53 million of the voting securities of X as a result of the acquisition. ``A" must therefore observe the requirements of the act before making the acquisition, unless the present acquisition is exempt under Section 7A(c), Sec. 802.21 or any other rule.

2. See Sec. 801.15 and the examples to that rule.
3. See Sec. 801.20 and the examples to that rule.

(3) Voting securities held by the acquiring person prior to an acquisition shall not be deemed voting securities held as a result of that subsequent acquisition if:

- (i) The acquiring person is, in the subsequent acquisition, acquiring only assets; and
- (ii) The acquisition of the previously acquired voting securities was subject to the filing and waiting requirements of the act (and such requirements were observed) or was exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.21.

4. On January 1, company A acquired $60 million of voting securities of company B. ``A" and ``B" filed notification and observed the waiting period for that acquisition. Company A plans to acquire $1 million of assets from company B on May 1 of the same year. Under Sec. 801.13(a)(3), ``A" and ``B" do not aggregate the value of the earlier acquired voting securities to determine whether the acquisition is subject to the act. Therefore, the value of the acquisition is $1 million and it is not reportable.

(b) Assets. (1) All assets to be acquired from the acquired person shall be assets held as a result of the acquisition. The value of such assets shall be determined in accordance with Sec. 801.10(b).

(2)(i) If the acquiring person has signed a letter of intent or entered into a contract or agreement in principle to acquire assets from the acquired person, and

(ii) Subject to the provisions of Sec. 801.15, if the acquiring person has acquired from the acquired person within the 180 calendar days preceding the signing of such agreement any assets which are presently held by the acquiring person, and the acquisition of which was not previously subject to the requirements of the act or the acquisition of which was subject to the requirements of the act but they were not observed, then for purposes of the size-of-transaction tests of Section 7A(a)(2) and for Sec. 801.1(h), both the acquiring and the acquired persons shall treat such assets as though they had not previously been acquired and are being acquired as part of the present acquisition. The value of any assets previously acquired which are subject to this paragraph shall be determined in accordance with Sec. 801.10(b) as of the time of their prior acquisition.

Example: Acquiring person ``A" proposes to make two acquisitions of assets from acquired person "B", 90 days apart, and wishes to determine whether notification is necessary prior to the second acquisition. For purposes of the size-of-transaction tests in Section 7A(a)(2), ``A" must aggregate both of its acquisitions and must value each as of the time of its occurrence.

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978, as amended at 52 FR 7081, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 801.14 Aggregate total amount of voting securities and assets.

For purposes of Section 7A(a)(2) and Sec. 801.1(h), the aggregate total amount of voting securities and assets shall be the sum of:

- (a) The value of all voting securities of the acquired person which the acquiring person would hold as a result of the acquisition, determined in accordance with Sec. 801.13(a); and
- (b) The value of all assets of the acquired person which the acquiring person would hold as a result of the acquisition, determined in accordance with Sec. 801.13(b).

Examples: 1. Acquiring person ``A" previously acquired $36 million of the voting securities (not convertible voting securities) of corporation X. ``A" now intends to acquire $8 million of X's assets. Under paragraph (a) of this section, ``A" looks to Sec. 801.13(a) and determines that the voting securities are to be held ``as a result of" the acquisition. Section 801.13(a) also provides that ``A" must determine the present value of the previously acquired securities. Under paragraph (b) of this section, ``A" looks to Sec. 801.13(b)(1) and determines that the assets to be acquired will be held ``as a result of" the acquisition, and are valued under Sec. 801.10(b) at $8 million. Therefore, if the voting securities have a present value of more than $42 million, the asset acquisition is subject to the requirements of the act since, as a result of it, ``A" would hold an aggregate total amount of the voting securities and assets of ``X" in excess of $50 million.

2. In the previous example, assume that the assets acquisition occurred first, and that the acquisition of the voting securities is to occur within 180 days of the first acquisition. ``A" now looks to Sec. 801.13(b)(2) and determines that because the second acquisition is of voting securities and not assets, the asset and voting securities acquisitions are not treated as one transaction. Therefore, the second acquisition would not be subject to the requirements of the act since the value of the securities to be acquired does not exceed the $50 million size-of-transaction test.

Sec. 801.15 Aggregation of voting securities and assets the acquisition of which was exempt.

Notwithstanding Sec. 801.13, for purposes of determining the aggregate total amount of voting securities and assets of the acquired person held by the acquiring person under Section 7A(a)(2) and Sec. 801.1(h), none of the following will be held as a result of an acquisition:

- (a) Assets or voting securities the acquisition of which was exempt at the time of acquisition (or would have been exempt, had the act and these rules been in effect), or the present acquisition of which is exempt, under--
  - (1) Sections 7A(c) (1), (5), (6), (7), (8), and (11)(B);
  - (2) Sections 802.1, 802.2, 802.5, 802.6(b)(1), 802.8, 802.31, 802.35, 802.50(a)(1), 802.51(a), 802.52, 802.53, 802.63, and 802.70;
- (b) Assets or voting securities the acquisition of which was exempt at the time of acquisition (or would have been exempt, had the act and these rules been in effect), or the present acquisition of which is exempt, under Section 7A(c)(9) and Secs. 802.3, 802.4, 802.50(a)(2),

802.50(b), 802.51(b) and 802.64 unless the limitations contained in Section 7A(c)(9) or those sections do not apply or as a result of the acquisition would be exceeded, in which case the assets or voting securities so acquired will be held; and

(c) Voting securities the acquisition of which was exempt at the time of acquisition (or would have been exempt, had the act and these rules been in effect), or the present acquisition of which is exempt, under Section 7A(c)(11)(A) unless additional voting securities of the same issuer have been or are being acquired.

Examples: 1. Assume that acquiring person ``A" is simultaneously to acquire $51 million of the convertible voting securities of X and $12 million of the voting common stock of X. Although the acquisition of the convertible voting securities is exempt under Sec. 802.31, since the overall value of the securities to be acquired is greater than $50 million, ``A" must determine whether it is obliged to file notification and observe a waiting period before acquiring the securities. Because Sec. 802.31 is one of the exemptions listed in paragraph (a)(2) of this rule, ``A" would not hold the convertible voting securities as a result of the acquisition. Therefore, since as a result of the acquisition ``A" would hold only the common stock, the size-of-transaction tests of Section 7A(a)(2) would not be satisfied, and ``A" need not observe the requirements of the act before acquiring the common stock. (Note, however, that the $51 million of convertible voting securities would be reflected in ``A's" next regularly prepared balance sheet, for purposes of Sec. 801.11.)

2. In the previous example, the rule was applied to voting securities the present acquisition of which is exempt. Assume instead that ``A" had acquired the convertible voting securities prior to its acquisition of the common stock. ``A" still would not hold the convertible voting securities as a result of the acquisition of the common stock, because the rule states that voting securities the previous acquisition of which was exempt also fall within the rule. Thus, the size-of-transaction tests of Section 7A(a)(2) would again not be satisfied, and ``A" need not observe the requirements of the act before acquiring the common stock.

3. In example 2, assume instead that ``A" acquired the convertible voting securities in 1975, before the act and rules went into effect. Since the rule applies to voting securities the acquisition of which would have been exempt had the act and rules been in effect, the result again would be identical. If the rules had been in effect in 1975, the acquisition of the convertible voting securities would have been exempt under Sec. 802.31.

4. Assume that acquiring person ``B," a United States person, acquired from corporation ``X" two manufacturing plants located abroad, and assume that the acquisition price was $60 million. In the most recent year, sales into the United States attributable to the plants were $15 million, and thus the acquisition was exempt under Sec. 802.50(a)(2). Within 180 days of that acquisition, ``B" seeks to acquire a third plant from ``X," to which United States sales of $12 million were attributable in the most recent year. Since under Sec. 801.13(b)(2), as a result of the acquisition, ``B" would hold all three plants of ``X," and the $25 million limitation in Sec. 802.50(a)(2) would be exceeded, under paragraph (b) of this rule, ``B" would hold the previously acquired assets for purposes of the second acquisition. Therefore, as a result of the second acquisition, ``B" would hold assets of ``X" exceeding $50 million in value, would not qualify for the exemption in Sec. 802.50(a)(2), and must observe the requirements of the act and file notification for the acquisition of all three plants before acquiring the third plant.

5. ``A" acquires producing oil reserves valued at $400 million from ``B." Two months later, ``A" agrees to acquire oil and gas rights valued at $75 million from ``B." Paragraph (b) of this section and Sec. 801.13(b)(2) require aggregating the previously exempt acquisition of oil reserves with the second acquisition. If the two acquisitions, when aggregated, exceed the $500 million limitation on the exemption for oil and gas reserves in Sec. 802.3(a), ``A" and ``B" will be required to file notification for the latter acquisition, including within the filings the earlier acquisition. Since, in this example, the total value of the assets in the two acquisitions, when aggregated, is less than $500 million, both acquisitions are exempt from the notification requirements. In determining whether the value of the assets in the two acquisitions exceed $500 million, ``A" need not determine the current fair market value of the oil reserves acquired in the first transaction, since these assets are now within the person of ``A." Instead ``A" may use the value of the oil reserves at the time of their prior acquisition in accordance with Sec. 801.10(b).

6. ``X" acquired 55 percent of the voting securities of M, an entity controlled by ``Z," six months ago and now proposes to acquire 50 percent of the voting stock of N, another entity controlled by ``Z." M's assets consist of $150 million worth of producing coal reserves plus $47 million worth of non-exempt assets and N's assets consist of a producing coal mine worth $100 million together with non-exempt assets with a fair market value of $36 million. ``X's" acquisition of the voting securities of M was exempt under Sec. 802.4(a) because M held exempt assets pursuant to Sec. 802.3(b) and less than $50 million of non-exempt assets. Because ``X" acquired control of M in the earlier transaction, M is now within the person of ``X," and the assets of M need not be aggregated with those of N to determine if the subsequent acquisition of N will exceed the limitation for coal reserves or for non-exempt assets. Since the assets of N alone do not exceed these limitations, ``X's" acquisition of N also is not reportable.

7. In Example 6, above, assume that ``X" acquired 30 percent of the voting securities of M and proposes to acquire 40 percent of the voting securities of N, another entity controlled by ``Z." Assume also that M's assets at the time of ``X's" acquisition of M's voting securities consisted of $90 million worth of producing coal reserves and non-exempt assets with a fair market value of $39 million, and that N's assets currently consist of $60 million worth of producing coal reserves and non-exempt assets with a fair market value of $28 million. Since ``X" acquired a minority interest in M and intends to acquire a minority interest in N, and since M and N are controlled by ``Z," the assets of M and N must be aggregated, pursuant to Secs. 801.15(b) and 801.13, to determine whether the acquisition of N's voting securities is exempt. ``X" is required to determine the current fair market value of M's assets. If the fair market value of M's coal reserves is unchanged, the aggregated exempt assets do not exceed the limitation for coal reserves. However, if the present fair market value of N's non-exempt assets also is unchanged, the present fair market value of the non-exempt assets of M and N when aggregated is greater than $50 million. Thus the acquisition of the voting securities of N is not exempt. If ``X" proposed to acquire 50 percent or more of the voting securities of both M and N in the same acquisition, the assets of M and N must be aggregated to determine if the acquisition of the voting securities of both issuers is exempt. Since the fair market value of the aggregated non-exempt assets exceeds $50 million, the acquisition would not be exempt.

8. ``A" acquired 49 percent of the voting securities of M and 45 percent of the voting securities of N. Both M and N are controlled by ``B." At the time of the acquisition M held rights to producing coal reserves worth $90 million and N held a producing coal mine worth $90 million. This acquisition was exempt since the aggregated holdings fell below the $200 million limitation for coal in Sec. 802.3(b). A year later, ``A" proposes to acquire an additional 10 percent of the voting securities of both M and N. In the intervening year, M has acquired coal reserves so that its holdings are now valued at $140 million, and the value of N's assets remained unchanged. ``A's" second acquisition would not be exempt. ``A" is required to determine the value of the exempt assets and any non-exempt assets held by any issuer whose voting securities it intends to acquire before each proposed acquisition (unless ``A" already owns 50 percent or more of the voting securities of the issuer) to determine if the value of those holdings of the issuer falls below the limitation of the applicable exemption. Here, an assessment shows that the holdings of M and N now exceed the $200 million limitation for coal reserves in Sec. 802.3.

Sec. 801.20 Acquisitions subsequent to exceeding threshold.

Acquisitions meeting the criteria of Section 7A(a), and not otherwise exempted by Section 7A(c) or Sec. 802.21 or any other of these rules, are subject to the requirements of the act even though:

- (a) Earlier acquisitions of assets or voting securities may have been subject to the requirements of the act;
- (b) The acquiring person's holdings initially may have met or exceeded a notification threshold before the effective date of these rules; or
- (c) The acquiring person's holdings initially may have met or exceeded a notification threshold by reason of increases in market values or events other than acquisitions.

Examples: 1. Person ``A" acquires $10 million of the voting securities of person ``B" before the effective date of these rules. If ``A" wishes to acquire an additional $41 million of the voting securities of ``B" after the effective date of the rules, notification will be required by reason of Section 7A(a)(2).

2. In example 1, assume that the value of the voting securities of ``B" originally acquired by ``A" has reached a present value exceeding $50 million. If ``A" wishes to acquire any additional voting securities or assets of ``B," notification will be required. See Sec. 801.13(a).

Sec. 801.21 Securities and cash not considered assets when acquired.

For purposes of determining the aggregate total amount of assets under Section 7A(a)(2) and Secs. 801.1(h)(1) and 801.13(b):

- (a) Cash shall not be considered an asset of the person from which it is acquired; and
- (b) Neither voting or nonvoting securities nor obligations referred to in Section 7A(c)(2) shall be considered assets of another person from which they are acquired.

Examples: 1. Assume that acquiring person ``A" acquires voting securities of issuer X from ``B," a person unrelated to X. Under this paragraph, the acquisition is treated only as one of voting securities, requiring ``A" and ``X" to comply with the requirements of the act, rather than one in which ``A" acquires the assets of ``B," requiring ``A" and ``B" to comply. See also example 2 to Sec. 801.30. Note that for purposes of Section 7A(a)(2)--that is, for the next regularly prepared balance sheet of ``A" referred to in Sec. 801.11--the voting securities of X must be reflected after their acquisition; see Sec. 801.11(c)(2).

2. In the previous example, if ``A" acquires nonvoting securities of X from ``B," then under this section the acquisition would be treated only as one of nonvoting securities of X (and would be exempt under Section 7A(c)(2)), rather than one in which ``A" acquires assets of ``B," requiring ``A" and ``B" to comply. Again, the nonvoting securities of X would have to be reflected in ``A's" next regularly prepared balance sheet for purposes of Section 7A(a)(2).

3. In example 1, assume that ``B" receives only cash from ``A" in exchange for the voting securities of X. Under this section, ``B's" acquisition of cash is not an acquisition of the ``assets" of ``A," and ``B" is not required to file notification as an acquiring person.

Sec. 801.30 Tender offers and acquisitions of voting securities from third parties.

- (a) This section applies to:
  - (1) Acquisitions on a national securities exchange or through an interdealer quotation system registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission;
  - (2) Acquisitions described by Sec. 801.31;
  - (3) Tender offers;
  - (4) Secondary acquisitions;
  - (5) All acquisitions (other than mergers and consolidations) in which voting securities are to be acquired from a holder or holders other than the issuer or an entity included within the same person as the issuer;
  - (6) Conversions; and
  - (7) Acquisitions of voting securities resulting from the exercise of options or warrants which are--

(i) Issued by the issuer whose voting securities are to be acquired (or by any entity included within the same person as the issuer); and

(ii) The subject of a currently effective registration statement filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933.

(b) For acquisitions described by paragraph (a) of this section:

(1) The waiting period required under the act shall commence upon the filing of notification by the acquiring person as provided in Sec. 803.10(a); and

(2) The acquired person shall file the notification required by the act, in accordance with these rules, no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the 15th (or, in the case of cash tender offers, the 10th) calendar day following the date of receipt, as defined by Sec. 803.10(a), by the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General of the notification filed by the acquiring person. Should the 15th (or, in the case of cash tender offers, the 10th) calendar day fall on a weekend day or federal holiday, the notification shall be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the next following business day.

Examples: 1. Acquiring person ``A" proposes to acquire from corporation B the voting securities of B's wholly owned subsidiary, corporation S. Since ``A" is acquiring the shares of S from its parent, this section does not apply, and the waiting period does not begin until both ``A" and ``B" file notification.

2. Acquiring person ``A" proposes to acquire $60 million of the voting securities of corporation X on a securities exchange. The waiting period begins when ``A" files notification. ``X" must file notification within 15 calendar days thereafter. The seller of the X shares is not subject to any obligations under the act.

3. Suppose that acquiring person ``A" proposes to acquire 50 percent of the voting securities of corporation B which in turn owns 30 percent of the voting securities of corporation C. Thus ``A's" acquisition of C's voting securities is a secondary acquisition (see Sec. 801.4) to which this section applies because ``A" is acquiring C's voting securities from a third party (B). Therefore, the waiting period with respect to ``A's" acquisition of C's voting securities begins when ``A" files its separate Notification and Report Form with respect to C, and ``C" must file within 15 days (or in the case of a cash tender offer, 10 days) thereafter. ``A's" primary and secondary acquisitions of the voting securities of B and C are subject to separate waiting periods; see Sec. 801.4.

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978; 43 FR 36054, Aug. 15, 1978, as amended at 52 FR 7082, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 801.31 Acquisitions of voting securities by offerees in tender offers.

Whenever an offeree in a noncash tender offer is required to, and does, file notification with respect to an acquisition described in Sec. 801.2(e):

(a) The waiting period with respect to such acquisition shall begin upon filing of notification by the offeree, pursuant to Secs. 801.30 and 803.10(a)(1);

(b) The person within which the issuer of the shares to be acquired by the offeree is included shall file notification as required by Sec. 801.30(b);

(c) Any request for additional information or documentary material pursuant to Section 7A(e) and Sec. 803.20 shall extend the waiting period in accordance with Sec. 803.20(c); and

(d) The voting securities to be acquired by the offeree may be placed into escrow, for the benefit of the offeree, pending expiration or termination of the waiting period with respect to the acquisition of such securities; Provided however, that no person may vote any voting securities placed into escrow pursuant to this paragraph.

Example: Assume that ``A," which has annual net sales exceeding $100 million, makes a tender offer for voting securities of corporation X. The consideration for the tender offer is to be voting securities of A. ``S," a shareholder of X with total assets exceeding $10 million, wishes to tender its holdings of X and in exchange would receive shares of A valued at $56 million. Under this section, ``S's" acquisition of the shares of A would be an acquisition separately subject to the requirements of the act. Before ``S" may acquire the voting securities of A, ``S" must first file notification and observe a waiting period--which is separate from any waiting period that may apply with respect to ``A" and ``X." Since Sec. 801.30 applies, the waiting period applicable to ``A" and ``S" begins upon filing by ``S," and ``A" must file with respect to ``S's" acquisition within 15 days pursuant to Sec. 801.30(b). Should the waiting period with respect to ``A" and ``X" expire or be terminated prior to the waiting period with respect to ``S" and ``A," ``S" may wish to tender its X-shares and place the A-shares into a nonvoting escrow until the expiration or termination of the latter waiting period.

Sec. 801.32 Conversion an acquisition.

A conversion is an acquisition within the meaning of the act.

Example: Assume that acquiring person ``A" wishes to convert convertible voting securities of issuer X, and is to receive common stock of X valued at $80 million. If ``A" and ``X" satisfy the criteria of Section 7A(a)(1) and Section 7A(a)(2)(B)(ii), then ``A" and ``X" must file notification and observe the waiting period before ``A" completes the acquisition of the X common stock, unless exempted by Section 7A(c) or these rules. Since Sec. 801.30 applies, the waiting period begins upon notification by ``A," and ``X" must file notification within 15 days.

Sec. 801.33 Consummation of an acquisition by acceptance of tendered shares of payment.

The acceptance for payment of any shares tendered in a tender offer is the consummation of an acquisition of those shares within the meaning of the act.

[48 FR 34433, July 29, 1983]

Sec. 801.40 Formation of joint venture or other corporations.

(a) In the formation of a joint venture or other corporation (other than in connection with a merger or consolidation), even though the persons contributing to the formation of a joint venture or other corporation and the joint venture or other corporation itself may, in the formation transaction, be both acquiring and acquired persons within the meaning of Sec. 801.2, the contributors shall be deemed acquiring persons only, and the joint venture or other corporation shall be deemed the acquired person only.

(b) Unless exempted by the act or any of these rules, upon the formation of a joint venture or other corporation, in a transaction meeting the criteria of Section 7A(a)(1) and 7A(a)(2)(A) (other than in connection with a merger or consolidation), an acquiring person shall be subject to the requirements of the act.

(c) Unless exempted by the act or any of these rules, upon the formation of a joint venture or other corporation, in a transaction meeting the criteria of Section 7A(a)(1) and the criteria of Section 7A(a)(2)(B)(i) (other than in connection with a merger or consolidation), an acquiring person shall be subject to the requirements of the act if:

- (1)(i) The acquiring person has annual net sales or total assets of $100 million or more;
- (ii) The joint venture or other corporation will have total assets of $10 million or more; and
- (iii) At least one other acquiring person has annual net sales or total assets of $10 million or more; or
- (2)(i) The acquiring person has annual net sales or total assets of $10 million or more;
- (ii) The joint venture or other corporation will have total assets of $100 million or more; and
- (iii) At least one other acquiring person has annual net sales or total assets of $10 million or more.

(d) For purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section and determining whether any exemptions provided by the act and these rules apply to its formation, the assets of the joint venture or other corporation shall include:

- (1) All assets which any person contributing to the formation of the joint venture or other corporation has agreed to transfer or for which agreements have been secured for the joint venture or other corporation to obtain at any time, whether or not such person is subject to the requirements of the act; and
- (2) Any amount of credit or any obligations of the joint venture or other corporation which any person contributing to the formation has agreed to extend or guarantee, at any time.

(e) The commerce criterion of Section 7A(a)(1) is satisfied if either the activities of any acquiring person are in or affect commerce, or the person filing notification should reasonably believe that the activities of the joint venture or other corporation will be in or will affect commerce.

Examples: 1. Persons ``A," ``B," and ``C" agree to create new corporation N, a joint venture.

``A," ``B," and ``C" will each hold one third of the shares of N. ``A" has more than $100 million in annual net sales. ``B" has more than $10 million in total assets but less than $100 million in annual net sales and total assets. Both ``C"'s total assets and its annual net sales are less than $10 million. ``A," ``B," and ``C" are each engaged in commerce. ``A," ``B," and ``C" have agreed to make an aggregate initial contribution to the new entity of $18 million in assets and each to make additional contributions of $21 million in each of the next three years. Under paragraph (d), the assets of the new corporation are $207 million. Under paragraph (c), ``A" and "B" must file notification. Note that ``A" and "B" also meet the criterion of Section 7A(a)(2)(B)(i) since they will be acquiring one third of the voting securities of the new entity for $69 million. N need not file notification; see Sec. 802.41.

2. In the preceding example "A" has over $10 million but less than $100 million in sales and assets, "B" and "C" have less than $10 million in sales and assets. "N" has total assets of $500 million. Assume that "A" will acquire 50 percent of the voting securities of "N" and "B" and "C" will each acquire 25 percent. Since "A" will acquire in excess of $200 million in voting securities of "N", the size-of-person test in Section 801.40(c) is inapplicable and "A" is required to file notification.

[43 FR 33537, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34434, July 29, 1983; 52 FR 7082, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 801.90 Transactions or devices for avoidance.

Any transaction(s) or other device(s) entered into or employed for the purpose of avoiding the obligation to comply with the requirements of the act, shall be disregarded, and the obligation to comply shall be determined by applying the act and these rules to the substance of the transaction.

Examples: 1. Suppose corporations A and B wish to form a joint venture. A and B contemplate a total investment of over $100 million in the joint venture; persons ``A" and ``B" each have total assets in excess of $100 million. Instead of filing notification pursuant to Sec. 801.40, A creates a new subsidiary, A1, which issues half of its authorized shares to A. Assume that A1 has total assets of $3000. ``A" then sells 50 percent of its A1 stock to ``B" for $1500. Thereafter, ``A" and ``B" each contribute $53 million to A1 in exchange for the remaining authorized A1 stock (one-fourth each to ``A" and ``B"). A's creation of A1 was exempt under Sec. 802.30; its $1500 sale of A1 stock to ``B" did not meet the size-of-transaction filing threshold in Section 7A(a)(2)(B); and the second acquisition of stock in A1 by ``A" and ``B" was exempt under Sec. 802.30 and Sections 7A(c) (3) and (10). Since this scheme appears to be for the purpose of avoiding the requirements of the act, the sequence of transactions will be disregarded. The transactions will be viewed as the formation of a joint venture corporation by ``A" and ``B" having over $10 million in assets. Such a transaction would be covered by Sec. 801.40 and ``A" and ``B" must file notification and observe the waiting period.

2. Suppose ``A" wholly owns and operates a chain of twenty retail hardware stores, each of which is separately incorporated and has assets of less than $10 million. The aggregate fair market value of the assets of the twenty store corporations is $60 million. ``A" proposes to sell the stores to ``B" for $60 million. For various reasons it is decided that ``B" will buy the stock of each of the store corporations from ``A". Instead of filing notification and observing the waiting period as contemplated by the act, ``A" and ``B" enter into a series of five stock purchase-sale agreements for $12 million each. Under the terms of each contract, the stock of four stores will pass from ``A" to ``B". The five agreements are to be consummated on five successive days. Because after each of these transactions the store corporations are no longer part of the acquired person (Sec. 801.13(a) does not apply because control has passed, see Sec. 801.2), and because $12 million is below the size-of-transaction filing threshold of Section 7A(a)(2)(B), none of the contemplated acquisitions would be subject to the requirements of the act. However, if the stock of all of the store corporations were to be purchased in one transaction, no exemption would be applicable, and the act's requirements would have to be met. Because it appears that the purpose of making five separate contracts is to avoid the requirements of the act, this section would ignore the form of the separate transactions and consider the substance to be one transaction requiring compliance with the act.

Sec. 802.1 Acquisitions of goods and realty in the ordinary course of business.

Pursuant to Section 7A(c)(1), acquisitions of goods and realty transferred in the ordinary course of business are exempt from the notification requirements of the act. This section identifies certain acquisitions of goods that are exempt as transfers in the ordinary course of business. This section also identifies certain acquisitions of goods and realty that are not in the ordinary course of business and, therefore, do not qualify for the exemption.

(a) Operating unit. An acquisition of all or substantially all the assets of an operating unit is not an acquisition in the ordinary course of business. Operating unit means assets that are operated by the acquired person as a business undertaking in a particular location or for particular products or services, even though those assets may not be organized as a separate legal entity

(b) New goods. An acquisition of new goods is in the ordinary course of business, except when the goods are acquired as part of an acquisition described in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Current supplies. An acquisition of current supplies is in the ordinary course of business, except when acquired as part of an acquisition described in paragraph (a) of this section. The term "current supplies" includes the following kinds of new or used assets:

- (1) Goods acquired and held solely for the purpose of resale or leasing to an entity not within the acquiring person (e.g., inventory),
- (2) Goods acquired for consumption in the acquiring person's business (e.g., office supplies, maintenance supplies or electricity), and
- (3) Goods acquired to be incorporated in the final product (e.g., raw materials and components).

(d) Used durable goods. A good is "durable" if it is designed to be used repeatedly and has a useful life greater than one year. An acquisition of used durable goods is an acquisition in the ordinary course of business if the goods are not acquired as part of an acquisition described in paragraph (a) of this section and any of the following criteria are met:

(1) The goods are acquired and held solely for the purpose of resale or leasing to an entity not within the acquiring person; or

(2) The goods are acquired from an acquired person who acquired and has held the goods solely for resale or leasing to an entity not within the acquired person; or

(3) The acquired person has replaced, by acquisition or lease, all or substantially all of the productive capacity of the goods being sold within six months of that sale, or the acquired person has in good faith executed a contract to replace within six months after the sale, by acquisition or lease, all or substantially all of the productive capacity of the goods being sold; or

(4) The goods have been used by the acquired person solely to provide management and administrative support services for its business operations, and the acquired person has in good faith executed a contract to obtain substantially similar services as were provided by the goods being sold. Management and administrative support services include services such as accounting, legal, purchasing, payroll, billing and repair and maintenance of the acquired person's own equipment. Manufacturing, research and development, testing and distribution (i.e., warehousing and transportation) are not considered management and administrative support services.

Examples: 1. Greengrocer Inc. intends to sell to ``A" all of the assets of one of the 12 grocery stores that it owns and operates throughout the metropolitan area of City X. Each of Greengrocer's stores constitutes an operating unit, i.e., a business undertaking in a particular location. Thus ``A's" acquisition is not exempt as an acquisition in the ordinary course of business. However, the acquisition will not be subject to the notification requirements if the acquisition price or fair market value of the store's assets does not exceed $50 million.

2. ``A," a manufacturer of airplane engines, agrees to pay $52 million to ``B," a manufacturer of airplane parts, for certain new engine components to be used in the manufacture of airplane engines. The acquisition is exempt under Sec. 802.1(b) as new goods as well as under Sec. 802.1(c)(3) as current supplies.

3. ``A," a power generation company, proposes to purchase from ``B," a coal company, $75 million of coal under a long-term contract for use in its facilities to supply electric power to a regional public utility and steam to several industrial sites. This transaction is exempt under Sec. 802.1(c)(2) as an acquisition of current supplies. However, if ``A" proposed to purchase coal reserves rather than enter into a contract to acquire output of a coal mine, the acquisition would not be exempt as an acquisition of goods in the ordinary course of business. The acquisition may still be exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.3(b) as an acquisition of reserves of coal if the requirements of that section are met.

4. ``A," a national producer of canned fruit, preserves, jams and jellies, agrees to purchase from ``B" for $60 million a total of 20,000 acres of orchards and vineyards in several locations throughout the U.S. ``A" plans to harvest the fruit from the acreage for use in its canning operations. The acquisition is not exempt under Sec. 802.1 because orchards and vineyards are real property, not ``goods." If, on the other hand, ``A" had contracted to acquire from ``B" the fruit and grapes harvested from the orchards and vineyards, the acquisition would qualify for the exemption as an acquisition of current supplies under Sec. 802.1(c)(3). Although the transfer of orchards and vineyards is not exempt under Sec. 802.1, the acquisition would be exempt under Sec. 802.2(g) as an acquisition of agricultural property.

5. ``A," a railcar leasing company, will purchase $55 million of new railcars from a railcar manufacturer in order to expand its existing fleet of cars available for lease. The transaction is exempt under Sec. 802.1(b) as an acquisition of new goods and Sec. 802.1(c), as an acquisition of current supplies. If ``A" subsequently sells the railcars to ``C", a commercial railroad company, that acquisition would be exempt under Sec. 802.1(d)(2), provided that ``A" acquired and held the railcars solely for resale or leasing to an entity not within itself.

6. ``A," a major oil company, proposes to sell two of its used oil tankers for $75 million to ``B," a dealer who purchases oil tankers from the major U.S. oil companies. ``B's" acquisition of the used oil tankers is exempt under Sec. 802.1(d)(1) provided that ``B" is actually acquiring beneficial ownership of the used tankers and is not acting as an agent of the seller or purchaser.

7. ``A," a cruise ship operator, plans to sell for $58 million one of its cruise ships to ``B," another cruise ship operator. ``A" has, in good faith, executed a contract to acquire a new cruise ship with substantially the same capacity from a manufacturer. The contract specifies that ``A" will receive the new cruise ship within one month after the scheduled date of the sale of its used cruise ship to ``B." Since ``B" is acquiring a used durable good that ``A" has contracted to replace within six months of the sale, the acquisition is exempt under Sec. 802.1(d)(3).

8. ``A," a luxury cruise ship operator, proposes to sell to ``B," a credit company engaged in the ordinary course of its business in lease financing transactions, its fleet of six passenger ships under a 10-year sale/leaseback arrangement. That acquisition is exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.1(d)(1), used durable goods acquired for leasing purposes. The acquisition is also exempt under Sec. 802.63(a) as a bona fide credit transaction entered into in the ordinary course of ``B's" business. ``B" now proposes to sell the ships, subject to the current lease financing arrangement, to ``C," another lease financing company. This transaction is exempt under Secs. 802.1(d)(1) and 802.1(d)(2).

9. Three months ago ``A," a manufacturing company, acquired several new machines that will replace equipment on one of its production lines. ``A's" capacity to produce the same products increased modestly when the integration of the new equipment was completed. ``B," a manufacturing company that produces products similar to those produced by ``A," has entered into a contract to acquire for $66 million the machinery that ``A" replaced. Delivery of the equipment by ``A" to ``B" is scheduled to occur within thirty days. Since ``A" purchased new machinery to replace the productive capacity of the used equipment, which it sold within six months of the purchase of the new equipment, the acquisition by ``B" is exempt under Sec.

10. ``A" will sell to ``B" for $56 million all of the equipment ``A" uses exclusively to perform its billing requirements. ``B" will use the equipment to provide ``A's" billing needs pursuant to a contract which ``A" and ``B" executed 30 days ago in conjunction with the equipment purchase agreement. Although the assets ``B" will acquire make up essentially all of the assets of one of ``A's" management and administrative support services divisions, the acquisition qualifies for the exemption under Sec. 802.1(d)(4) because a company's internal management and administrative support services, however organized, are not an operating unit as defined by Sec. 802.1(a). Management and administrative support services are not a ``business undertaking" as that term is used in Sec. 802.1(a). Rather, they provide support and benefit to the company's operating units and support the company's business operations. However, if the assets being sold also derived revenues from providing billing services for third parties, then the transfer of these assets would not be exempt under Sec. 802.1(d)(4), since the equipment is not being used solely to provide management and administrative support services to ``A".

11. ``A," a manufacturer of pharmaceutical products, and ``B" have entered into a contract under which ``B" will provide all of ``A's" research and development needs. Pursuant to the contract, ``B" will also purchase all of the equipment that ``A" formerly used to perform its own research and development activities. The sale of the equipment is not an exempt transaction under Sec. 802.1(d)(3) because ``A" is not replacing the productive capacity of the equipment being sold. The sale is also not exempt under Sec. 802.1(d)(4), because functions such as research and development and testing are not management and administrative support services of a company but are integral to the design, development or production of the company's products.

12. ``A," an automobile manufacturer, is discontinuing its manufacture of metal seat frames for its cars. ``A" enters into a contract with ``B," a manufacturer of various fabricated metal products, to sell its seat frame production lines and to purchase from ``B" all of its metal seat frame needs for the next five years. This transfer of productive capacity by ``A" is not exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.1(d)(3), since ``A" is not replacing the productive capacity of the equipment being sold. The acquisition is also not exempt under Sec. 802.1(d)(4). ``A's" sale of production lines is not the transfer of goods that provide management and administrative services to support the business operations of "A"; this manufacturing equipment is an integral part of ``A's" production operations.

Sec. 802.2 Certain acquisitions of real property assets.

(a) New facilities. An acquisition of a new facility shall be exempt from the requirements of the act. A new facility is a structure that has not produced income and was either constructed by the acquired person for sale or held at all times by the acquired person solely for resale. The new facility may include realty, equipment or other assets incidental to the ownership of the new facility. In an acquisition that includes a new facility, the transfer of any other assets shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were being acquired in a separate acquisition.

(b) Used facilities. An acquisition of a used facility shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if the facility is acquired from a lessor that has held title to the facility for financing purposes in the ordinary course of the lessor's business by a lessee that has had sole and continuous possession and use of the facility since it was first built as a new facility. The used facility may include realty, equipment or other assets associated with the operation of the facility. In an acquisition that includes a used facility that meets the requirements of this paragraph, the transfer of any other assets shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were acquired in a separate transaction.

(c) Unproductive real property. An acquisition of unproductive real property shall be exempt from the requirements of the act. In an acquisition that includes unproductive real property, the transfer of any assets that are not unproductive real property shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were being acquired in a separate acquisition.

(1) Subject to the limitations of (c)(2), unproductive real property is any real property, including raw land, structures or other improvements (but excluding equipment), associated production and exploration assets as defined in Sec. 802.3(c), natural resources and assets incidental to the ownership of the real property, that has not generated total revenues in excess of $5 million during the thirty-six (36) months preceding the acquisition.

(2) Unproductive real property does not include the following:

- (i) Manufacturing or non-manufacturing facilities that have not yet begun operation;
- (ii) Manufacturing or non-manufacturing facilities that were in operation at any time during the twelve (12) months preceding the acquisition; and
- (iii) Real property that is either adjacent to or used in conjunction with real property that is not unproductive real property and is included in the acquisition.

(d) Office and residential property. (1) An acquisition of office or residential property shall be exempt from the requirements of the act. In an acquisition that includes office or residential property, the transfer of any assets that are not office or residential property shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if such assets were being transferred in a separate acquisition.

(2) Office and residential property is real property that is used primarily for office or residential purposes. In determining whether real property is used primarily for office or residential purposes, all real property, the acquisition of which is exempt under another provision of the act and these rules, shall be excluded from the determination. Office and residential property includes:

- (i) Office buildings,
- (ii) Residences,
- (iii) Common areas on the property, including parking and recreational facilities, and
- (iv) Assets incidental to the ownership of such property, including cash, prepaid taxes or insurance, rental receivables and the like.

(3) If the acquisition includes the purchase of a business conducted on the office and residential property, the transfer of that business, including the space in which the business is conducted, shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if such business were being transferred in a separate acquisition.

(e) Hotels and motels. (1) An acquisition of a hotel or motel, its improvements such as golf, swimming, tennis, restaurant, health club or parking facilities (but excluding ski facilities), and assets incidental to the ownership and operation of the hotel or motel (e.g., prepaid taxes or insurance, management contracts and licenses to use trademarks associated with the hotel or motel being acquired) shall be exempt from the requirements of the act. In an acquisition that includes a hotel or motel, the transfer of any assets that are not a hotel or motel, its improvements such as golf, swimming, tennis, restaurant, health club or parking facilities (but excluding ski facilities) and assets incidental to the ownership of the hotel or motel, shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were being acquired in a separate acquisition.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of the section, an acquisition of a hotel or motel that includes a gambling casino shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules.

(f) Recreational land. An acquisition of recreational land shall be exempt from the requirements of the act. Recreational land is real property used primarily as a golf course or a swimming or tennis club facility, and assets incidental to the ownership of such property. In an acquisition that includes recreational land, the transfer of any property or assets that are not recreational land shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were being acquired in a separate acquisition.

(g) Agricultural property. An acquisition of agricultural property, assets incidental to the ownership of such property and associated agricultural assets shall be exempt from the requirements of the act. Agricultural property is real property and assets that primarily generate revenues from the production of crops, fruits, vegetables, livestock, poultry, milk and eggs (activities within SIC Major Groups 01 and 02).

(1) Associated agricultural assets are assets integral to the agricultural business activities conducted on the property. Associated agricultural assets include, but are not limited to, inventory (e.g., livestock, poultry, crops, fruit, vegetables, milk, eggs); structures that house livestock raised on the real property; and fertilizer and animal feed. Associated agricultural assets do not include processing facilities such as poultry and livestock slaughtering, processing and packing facilities.

(2) Agricultural property does not include any real property and assets either adjacent to or used in conjunction with processing facilities that are included in the acquisition.

(3) In an acquisition that includes agricultural property, the transfer of any assets that are not agricultural property, assets incidental to the ownership of such property or associated agricultural assets shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if such assets were being transferred in a separate acquisition.

(h) Retail rental space; warehouses. An acquisition of retail rental space (including shopping centers) or warehouses and assets incidental to the ownership of retail rental space or warehouses shall be exempt from the requirements of the act, except when the retail rental space or warehouse is to be acquired in an acquisition of a business conducted on the real property. In an acquisition that includes retail rental space or warehouses, the transfer of any assets that are neither retail rental space nor warehouses shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if such assets were being transferred in a separate acquisition.

Examples. 1. ``A," a major automobile manufacturer, builds a new automobile plant in anticipation of increased demand for its cars. The market does not improve and ``A" never occupies the facility. ``A" then sells the facility, which is fully equipped and ready for operation, to ``B," another automobile manufacturer. The acquisition of this plant, including any equipment and assets associated with its operation, is not exempt as an acquisition of a new facility, even though the facility has not produced any income, since ``A" did not construct the facility for sale or hold it at all times solely for resale. Also, the acquisition is not exempt as an acquisition of unproductive property, because manufacturing facilities that have not yet begun operations are explicitly excluded from that exemption.

2. B, a subsidiary of ``A," a financial institution, acquired a newly constructed power plant, which it leased to ``X" pursuant to a lease financing arrangement. ``A's" acquisition of the plant through B was exempt under Sec. 802.63(a) as a bona fide credit transaction entered into in the ordinary course of ``A's" business. ``X" operated the plant as sole lessee for the next eight years and now proposes to exercise an option to buy the plant for $62 million. ``X's" acquisition of the plant is exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.2(b). The plant is being acquired from B, the lessor, which held title to the plant for financing purposes, and the purchaser, ``X," has had sole and continuous possession and use of the plant since its construction.

3. ``A" proposes to acquire a $200 million tract of wilderness land from ``B." Copper deposits valued at $57 million and timber reserves valued at $60 million are situated on the land and will be conveyed as part of this transaction. During the last three fiscal years preceding the sale, the property generated $50,000 from the sale of a small amount of timber cut from the reserves two years ago. ``A's" acquisition of the wilderness land from ``B" is exempt as an acquisition of unproductive real property because the property did not generate revenues exceeding $5 million during the thirty-six months preceding the acquisition. The copper deposits and timber reserves are by definition unproductive real property and, thus, are not separately subject to the notification requirements.

4. ``A" proposes to purchase from ``B" for $140 million an old steel mill that is not currently operating to add to ``A's" existing steel production capacity. The mill has not generated revenues during the 36 months preceding the acquisition but contains equipment valued at $56 million that ``A" plans to refurbish for use in its operations. ``A's" acquisition of the mill and the land on which it is located is exempt as unproductive real property. However, the transfer of the equipment and any assets other than the unproductive property is not exempt and is separately subject to the notification requirements of the act.

5. ``A" proposes to purchase two downtown lots, Parcels 1 and 2, from ``B" for $70 million. Parcel 1, located in the southwest section, contains no structures or improvements. A hotel is located in the northeast section on Parcel 2, and it has generated $9 million in revenues during the past three years. The purchase of Parcel 1 is exempt if it qualifies as unproductive real property, i.e., it has not generated annual revenues in excess of $5 million in the three fiscal years prior to the acquisition. Parcel 2 is not unproductive real property, but its acquisition is exempt under Sec. 802.2(e) as the acquisition of a hotel.

6. ``A" plans to purchase from ``B," a manufacturer, a newly-constructed building that ``B" had intended to equip for use in its manufacturing operations. ``B" was unable to secure financing to purchase the necessary equipment and ``A", also a manufacturer, will be required to invest approximately $50 million in order to equip the building for use in its production operations. This building is not a new facility under Sec. 802.2 (a), because it was not constructed or held by ``B" for sale or resale. However, the acquisition of the building qualifies for exemption as unproductive real property pursuant to Sec. 802.2(c)(1). The building is not yet a manufacturing facility since it does not contain equipment and requires significant capital investment before it can be used as a manufacturing facility.

7. ``A" proposes to purchase from ``B," for $60 million, a 100 acre parcel of land that includes a currently operating factory occupying 10 acres. The other 90 adjoining acres are vacant and unimproved and are used by ``B" for storage of supplies and equipment. The factory and the unimproved acreage have fair market values of $32 million and $28 million, respectively. The transaction is not exempt under Sec. 802.2(c) because the vacant property is adjacent to property occupied by the operating factory. Moreover, if the 90 acres were not adjacent to the 10 acres occupied by the factory, the transaction would not be exempt because the 90 acres are being used in conjunction with the factory being acquired and thus are not unproductive property.

8. `X" proposes to buy a five-story building from ``Y." The ground floor of this building houses a department store, and ``X" currently leases the third floor to operate a medical laboratory. The remaining three floors are used for offices. ``X" is not acquiring the business of the department store. Because the ground floor is rental retail space, the acquisition of which is exempt under Sec. 802.2(h), this part of the building is excluded from the determination of whether the building is used primarily for office purposes. The laboratory is therefore the only non-office use, and, since it makes up 25 percent of the remainder of the building, the building is used 75 percent for offices. Thus the building qualifies as an office building and its acquisition is therefore exempt under Sec. 802.2(d).

9. ``A" intends to acquire three shopping centers from ``B" for a total of $180 million. The anchor stores in two of the shopping centers are department stores, the businesses of which ``A" is buying from ``B" as part of the overall transaction. The acquisition of the shopping centers is an acquisition of retail rental space that is exempt under Sec. 802.2(h). However, ``A's" acquisition of the department store businesses, including the portion of the shopping centers that the two department stores being purchased occupy, are separately subject to the notification requirements. If the value of these assets exceeds $50 million, ``A" must comply with the requirements of the act for this part of the transaction.

10. ``A" wishes to purchase from ``B" a parcel of land for $67 million. The parcel contains a race track and a golf course. The golf course qualifies as recreational land pursuant to Sec. 802.2(f), but the race track is not included in the exemption. Therefore, if the value of the race track is more than $50 million, ``A" will have to file notification for the purchase of the race track.

11. ``A" intends to purchase a poultry farm from ``B." The acquisition of the poultry farm is a transfer of agricultural property that is exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.2(g). If, however, ``B" has a poultry slaughtering and processing facility on his farm that is included in the acquisition, ``A's" acquisition of the farm is not exempt as an acquisition of agricultural property because agricultural property does not include property or assets adjacent to or used in conjunction with a processing facility that is included in an acquisition.

12. ``A" proposes to purchase the prescription drug wholesale distribution business of ``B" for $80 million. The business includes six regional warehouses used for ``B's" national wholesale drug distribution business. Since ``A" is acquiring the warehouses in connection with the acquisition of ``B's" prescription drug wholesale distribution business, the acquisition of the warehouses is not exempt.

Sec. 802.3 Acquisitions of carbon-based mineral reserves.

(a) An acquisition of reserves of oil, natural gas, shale or tar sands, or rights to reserves of oil, natural gas, shale or tar sands together with associated exploration or production assets shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if the value of the reserves, the rights and the associated exploration or production assets to be held as a result of the acquisition does not exceed $500 million. In an acquisition that includes reserves of oil, natural gas, shale or tar sands, or rights to reserves of oil, natural gas, shale or tar sands and associated exploration or production assets, the transfer of any other assets shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were being acquired in a separate acquisition.

(b) An acquisition of reserves of coal, or rights to reserves of coal and associated exploration or production assets, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if the value of the reserves, the rights and the associated exploration or production assets to be held as a result of the acquisition does not exceed $200 million. In an acquisition that includes reserves of coal, rights to reserves of coal and associated exploration or production assets, the transfer of any other assets shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were being acquired in a separate acquisition.

(c) Associated exploration or production assets means equipment, machinery, fixtures and other assets that are integral and exclusive to current or future exploration or production activities associated with the carbon-based mineral reserves that are being acquired. Associated exploration or production assets do not include the following:

(1) Any pipeline and pipeline system or processing facility which transports or processes oil and gas after it passes through the meters of a producing field located within reserves that are being acquired; and

(2) Any pipeline or pipeline system that receives gas directly from gas wells for transportation to a natural gas processing facility or other destination.

Examples: 1. ``A" proposes to purchase from ``B" for $550 million gas reserves that are not yet in production and have not generated any income. ``A" will also acquire from ``B" for $280 million producing oil reserves and associated assets such as wells, compressors, pumps and other equipment. The acquisition of the gas reserves is exempt as a transfer of unproductive property under Sec. 802.2(c). The acquisition of the oil reserves and associated assets is exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.3(a), since the value of the reserves and associated assets does not exceed the $500 million limitation.

2. ``A," an oil company, proposes to acquire for $180 million oil reserves currently in production along with field pipelines and treating and metering facilities which serve such reserves exclusively. The acquisition of the reserves and the associated assets are exempt. ``A" will also acquire from ``B" for $51 million a natural gas processing plant and its associated gathering pipeline system. This acquisition is not exempt since Sec. 802.3(c) excludes these assets from the exemption in Sec. 802.3 for transfers of associated exploration or production assets.

3. ``A," an oil company, proposes to acquire a coal mine currently in operation and associated production assets for $90 million from ``B," an oil company. "A" will also purchase from ``B" producing oil reserves valued at $100 million and an oil refinery valued at $13 million. The acquisition of the coal mine and the oil reserves is exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.3. Although Sec. 802.3(c) excludes the refinery from the exemption in Sec. 802.3 for transfers of associated exploration and production assets, ``A's" acquisition of the refinery is not subject to the notification requirements of the act because its value does not exceed $50 million.

4. ``X" proposes to acquire from ``Z" coal reserves which, together with associated exploration assets, are valued at $230 million. Since the value of the reserves and the assets exceeds the $200 million limitation in Sec. 802.3(b), this transaction is not exempt under Sec. 802.3. However, if the coal reserves qualify as unproductive property under the requirements of Sec. 802.2(c), their acquisition, along with the acquisition of their associated assets, would be exempt.

Sec. 802.4 Acquisitions of voting securities of issuers holding certain assets the direct acquisition of which is exempt.

(a) An acquisition of voting securities of an issuer whose assets together with those of all entities it controls consist or will consist of assets whose purchase would be exempt from the requirements of the act pursuant to Section 7A(c)(2) of the act, Sec. 802.2, Sec. 802.3 or Sec. 802.5 of these rules is exempt from the reporting requirements if the acquired issuer and all entities it controls do not hold other non-exempt assets with an aggregate fair market value of more than $50 million.

(b) As used in paragraph (a) of this section, issuer means a single issuer, or two or more issuers controlled by the same acquired person.

(c) In connection with paragraph (a) of this section and Sec. 801.15 (b), the value of the assets of an issuer whose voting securities are being acquired pursuant to this section shall be the fair market value, determined in accordance with Sec. 801.10(c).

Examples: 1. ``A," a real estate investment company, proposes to purchase 100 percent of the voting securities of C, a wholly-owned subsidiary of ``B," a construction company. C's assets are a newly constructed, never occupied hotel, including fixtures, furnishings and insurance policies. The acquisition of the hotel would be exempt under Sec. 802.2(a) as a new facility and under Sec. 802.2(d). Therefore, the acquisition of the voting securities of C is exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.4(a) since C holds assets whose direct purchase would be exempt under Sec. 802.2 and does not hold non-exempt assets exceeding $50 million in value.

2. ``A" proposes to acquire 60 percent of the voting securities of C from ``B." C's assets consist of a portfolio of mortgages valued at $55 million and a small manufacturing plant valued at $26 million. The manufacturing plant is an operating unit for purposes of Sec. 802.1(a). Since the acquisition of the mortgages would be exempt pursuant to Section 7A(c)(2) of the act and since the value of the non-exempt manufacturing plant is less than $50 million, this acquisition is exempt under Sec. 802.4(a).

3. ``A" proposes to acquire from ``B" 100 percent of the voting securities of each of three issuers, M, N and O, simultaneously. M's assets consist of oil reserves worth $160 million and coal reserves worth $40 million. N has assets consisting of $130 million of gas reserves and $100 million of coal reserves. O's assets are oil shale reserves worth $140 million and a coal mine worth $80 million. Since ``A" is simultaneously acquiring the voting securities of three issuers from the same acquired person, it must aggregate the assets of the issuers to determine if any of the limitations in Sec. 802.3 is exceeded. As a result of aggregating the assets of M, N and O, ``A's" holdings of oil and gas reserves are below the $500 limitation for such assets in Sec. 802.3(a). However, the aggregated holdings exceed the $200 million limitation for coal reserves in Sec. 802.3(b). ``A's" acquisition therefore is not exempt, and it must report the entire transaction.

Sec. 802.5 Acquisitions of investment rental property assets.

(a) Acquisitions of investment rental property assets shall be exempt from the requirements of the act.

(b) Investment rental property assets. ``Investment rental property assets" means real property that will not be rented to entities included within the acquiring person except for the sole purpose of maintaining, managing or supervising the operation of the real property, and will be held solely for rental or investment purposes. In an acquisition that includes investment rental property assets, the transfer of any property or assets that are not investment rental property assets shall be subject to the requirements of the act and these rules as if they were being acquired in a separate transaction. Investment rental property assets include:

- (1) Property currently rented,
- (2) Property held for rent but not currently rented,
- (3) Common areas on the property, and
- (4) Assets incidental to the ownership of property, which may include cash, prepaid taxes or insurance, rental receivables and the like.

Example: 1. ``X", a corporation, proposes to purchase a sports/entertainment complex which it will rent to professional sports teams and promoters of special events for concerts, ice shows, sporting events and other entertainment activities. ``X" will provide office space in the complex for ``Y", a management company which will maintain and manage the facility for ``X." This acquisition is an exempt acquisition of investment rental property assets since ``X" intends to rent the facility to third parties and is providing space within the facility to a management company solely to maintain, manage or supervise the operation of the facility on its behalf. If, however, ``X" controls Z, a concert promoter to whom it also intends to rent the complex, the acquisition would not be exempt under Sec. 802.5, since the property would not meet the requirements of Sec. 802.5(b)(1).

2. ``X" intends to buy from ``Y" a development commonly referred to as an industrial park. The industrial park contains a warehouse/distribution center, a retail tire and automobile parts store, an office building, and a small factory. The industrial park also contains several parcels of vacant land. If ``X" intends to acquire this industrial park as investment rental property, the acquisition will be exempt pursuant to Sec. 802.5. If, however, ``X" intends to use the factory for its own manufacturing operations, this exemption would be unavailable. The exemptions in Sec. 802.2 for warehouses, rental retail space, office buildings, and undeveloped land may still apply and, if the value of the factory is $50 million or less, the entire transaction may be exempted by that section.

Sec. 802.6 Federal agency approval.

(a) For the purposes of Section 7A (c)(6) and (c)(8), the term information and documentary material includes one copy of all documents, application forms, and all written submissions of any type whatsoever. In lieu of providing all such information and documentary material, or any portion thereof, one copy of an index describing such information and documentary material may be provided, together with a certification that any such information or documentary material not provided will be provided within 10 calendar days upon request by the Federal Trade Commission or Assistant Attorney General, or a delegated official of either. Any material submitted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the offices specified in Sec. 803.10(c).

(b)(1) Except as provided in Sec. 802.6(b)(2), any transaction which requires approval by the Civil Aeronautics Board prior to consummation, pursuant to section 408 of the Federal Aviation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1378, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if copies of all information and documentary material filed with the Civil Aeronautics Board are contemporaneously filed with the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General.

(2) The following will be considered assets held as a result of an acquisition requiring approval by the Civil Aeronautics Board pursuant to section 408 of the Federal Aviation Act, and such assets will not be exempt under Sec. 802.6(b)(1):

(i) If the transaction is an acquisition of assets, the assets which are engaged in a business or businesses other than aeronautics or air transportation as defined in section 101 of the Federal Aviation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1301;

(ii) If the transaction is an acquisition of voting securities, or is treated under the rules as an acquisition of voting securities, and the acquiring person will, as a result of the acquisition, hold voting securities of the acquired person valued in excess of $50 million, the business or businesses of the acquired issuer (and all entities which it controls) which are not engaged in aeronautics or air transportation as defined in section 101 of the Federal Aviation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1301.

Example: Assume that A (an entity included within person ``A") proposes to acquire voting securities of B (an entity included within person ``B") for $100 million. A and B are both air carriers who meet the size-of-person test, but B also owns a commercial data processing business located in the United States with a value of $60 million. Assume that this transaction requires CAB approval under 49 U.S.C. 1378. Since the acquired person has a business other than aeronautics or air transportation, the parties must report under Sec. 802.6(b)(2) because the parties meet the size-of-person test, no other exemption applies to the acquisition of the data processing business, and the acquisition of the non-aeronautic business is deemed to be an acquisition of assets valued at $60 million.

Sec. 802.8 Certain supervisory acquisitions.

(a) A merger, consolidation, purchase of assets, or acquisition requiring agency approval under sections 403 or 408(e) of the National Housing Act, 12 U.S.C. 1726, 1730a(e), or under section 5 of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 12 U.S.C. 1464 shall be exempt from the requirements of the act, including specifically the filing requirement of Section 7A(c)(8), if the agency whose approval is required finds that approval of such merger, consolidation, purchase of assets, or acquisition is necessary to prevent the probable failure of one of the institutions involved.

(b)(1) A merger, consolidation, purchase of assets, or acquisition which requires agency approval under 12 U.S.C. 1817(j) or 12 U.S.C. 1730(q) shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if copies of all information and documentary materials filed with any such agency are contemporaneously filed with the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General at least 30 days prior to consummation of the proposed acquisition.

(2) A transaction described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall be exempt from the requirements of the act, including specifically the filing requirement, if the agency whose approval is required finds that approval of such transaction is necessary to prevent the probable failure of one of the institutions involved.

Sec. 802.9 Acquisition solely for the purpose of investment.

An acquisition of voting securities shall be exempt from the requirements of the act pursuant to Section 7A(c)(9) if made solely for the purpose of investment and if, as a result of the acquisition, the acquiring person would hold ten percent or less of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer, regardless of the dollar value of voting securities so acquired or held.

Examples: 1. Suppose that acquiring person ``A" acquires 6 percent of the voting securities of issuer X, valued at $52 million. If the acquisition is solely for the purpose of investment, it is exempt under Section 7A(c)(9).

2. After the acquisition in example 1, ``A" decides to acquire an additional 7 percent of the voting securities of X. Regardless of ``A"'s intentions, the acquisition is not exempt under Section 7A(c)(9).

3. After the acquisition in example 1, acquiring person ``A" decides to participate in the management of issuer X. Any subsequent acquisitions of X stock by ``A" would not be exempt under Section 7A(c)(9).

Sec. 802.10 Stock dividends and splits.

The acquisition of voting securities, pursuant to a stock split or pro rata stock dividend, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act under Section 7A(c)(10).

Sec. 802.21 Acquisitions of voting securities not meeting or exceeding greater notification threshold.

(a) An acquisition of voting securities shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if:

(1) The acquiring person and all other persons required by the act and these rules to file notification filed notification with respect to an earlier acquisition of voting securities of the same issuer;

(2) The waiting period with respect to the earlier acquisition has expired, or been terminated pursuant to Sec. 803.11, and the acquisition will be consummated within 5 years of such expiration or termination; and

(3) The acquisition will not increase the holdings of the acquiring person to meet or exceed a notification threshold greater than the greatest notification threshold met or exceeded in the earlier acquisition.

Examples: 1. Corporation A acquires $53 million of the voting securities of corporation B and both ``A" and ``B" file notification as required, indicating the $50 million threshold. Within five years of the expiration of the original waiting period, ``A" acquires additional voting securities of B but not in an amount sufficient to meet or exceed $100 million or 50 percent of the voting securities of B. No additional notification is required.

2. In example 1, ``A" continues to acquire B's securities. Before ``A's" holdings meet or exceed $100 million or 50 percent of B's outstanding voting securities, ``A" and ``B" must file notification and wait the prescribed period, regardless of whether the acquisition occurs within five years after the expiration of the earlier waiting period.

3. In example 2, suppose that ``A" and ``B" file notification at the $500 million level and that, within 5 years after expiration of the waiting period, ``A" continues to acquire voting securities of B. No further notification is required until ``A" plans to make the acquisition that will give it 25 percent of B's voting securities valued at over $1 billion; or 50 percent ownership of B. (Once ``A" holds 50 percent, further acquisitions of voting securities are exempt under Section 7A(c)(3)).

4. This section also allows a person to recross any of the threshold notification levels--$50 million, $100 million, $500 million, 25 percent (if valued over $1 billion) and 50 percent--any number of times within 5 years of the expiration of the waiting period following notification for that level. Thus, if in example 1, ``A" had disposed of some voting securities so that it held less than $50 million of the voting securities of B, and thereafter had increased its holdings to more than $50 million but less than $100 million or 50 percent of B, notification would not be required if the increase occurred within 5 years of the expiration of the original waiting period. Similarly, in examples 2 and 3, ``A" could decrease its holdings below, and then increase its holdings above, $50 million and $500 million, respectively without filing notification, if done within 5 years of the expiration of those respective waiting periods.

(b) Year 2001 Transition. For transactions filed using the 1978 thresholds where the waiting period expired or was terminated after February 1, 1996, an acquiring person may acquire up to what was the next percentage threshold at the time it made its filing without filing another notification, even if in doing so it crosses a 2001 notification threshold in Sec. 801.1(h). However, it has only one year from February 1, 2001, or until the end of the original 5-year period following expiration of the waiting period, whichever comes first, to acquire additional securities up to the previous next threshold. Any acquisition thereafter must be the subject of a new notification if it meets or exceeds a 2001 threshold in Sec. 801.1(h).

Examples: 1. Corporation A filed to acquire 20 percent of the voting securities of corporation B and indicated the 15 percent threshold. The waiting period expired on October 3, 1999. "A" acquired the 20 percent within the year following expiration of the waiting period. "A" has until February 1, 2002 to acquire additional securities up to 25 percent of "B"'s voting securities, and need not make another filing before doing so, even though such acquisition by "A" may cross the $50 million, $100 million or $500 million notification threshold in Sec. 801.1(h). After February 1, 2002, "A" and "B" must observe the 2001 notification thresholds set out in Sec. 801.1(h).

2. Same facts as in example 1 above, except that the waiting period on corporation A's filing expired on October 3, 1996. "A" has until October 3, 2001 to make additional acquisitions up to the 25 percent threshold. The one-year transition period in Sec. 802.21(b) cannot be used to extend the 5-year period for additional acquisitions provided for in Sec. 802.21(a).

3. Prior to February 1, 2001, "A" filed to acquire 12 percent of the voting securities of corporation B and indicated the $15 million notification threshold. In March, 2001, "A" determines that it will make an additional acquisition which will result in it holding 16 percent of the voting securities of B, valued at $60 million. "A" is required to file notification at the $50 million notification threshold prior to making the acquisition.

4. Prior to February 1, 2001, "A" filed to acquire 26 percent of the voting securities of "B" and indicated the 25 percent notification threshold. After February 1, 2002, "A" will acquire additional shares of "B" which will result in it holding 30 percent of the voting securities of "B", valued at $125 million. "A" is required to file notification at the $100 million notification threshold prior to making the acquisition. "A" could, however, have reached this level (30 percent valued at $125 million) prior to February 1, 2002 without making an additional filing. If "A" had done this, and then wanted to acquire any additional voting securities of "B" after February 1, 2002, "A" would have to file for the $100 million notification threshold.

Sec. 802.23 Amended or renewed tender offers.

Whenever a tender offer is amended or renewed after notification has been filed by the offeror, no new notification shall be required, and the running of the waiting period shall be unaffected, except as follows:

(a) If the number of voting securities to be acquired pursuant to the offer is increased such that a greater notification threshold would be met or exceeded, only the acquiring person need again file notification, but a new waiting period must be observed;

(b) If a noncash tender offer is amended to become a cash tender offer, (1) one copy of the amended tender offer shall be filed in the manner prescribed by Sec. 803.10(c) with the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General, and (2) subject to the provisions of Sec. 803.10(b)(1), the waiting period shall expire on the 15th day after the date of receipt (determined in accordance with Sec. 803.10(c)) of the amended tender offer, or on the 30th day after filing notification, whichever is earlier; or

(c) If a cash tender offer is amended to become a noncash tender offer, (1) one copy of the amended tender offer shall be filed in the manner prescribed by Sec. 803.10(c) with the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General, and (2) subject to the provisions of Sec. 803.10(b)(1), the waiting period shall expire on the 15th day after the date of receipt (as determined in accordance with Sec. 803.10(c)) of the amended tender offer, or on the 30th day after filing notification, whichever is later.

Examples: 1. Assume that corporation A makes a tender offer for 20 percent of the voting securities of corporation B and that "A" files notification. Under this section, if A subsequently amends its tender offer only as to the amount of consideration offered, the waiting period so commenced is not affected, and no new notification need be filed.

2. In the previous example, assume that A makes an amended tender offer for 27 percent of the voting securities of B, valued at greater than $1 billion. Since a new notification threshold will be crossed, this section requires that "A" must again file notification and observe a new waiting period. Paragraph (a) of this section, however, provides that "B" need not file notification again.

3. Assume that "A" makes a tender offer for shares of corporation B. "A" includes its voting securities as part of the consideration. "A" files notification. Five days later, "A" changes its tender offer to a cash tender offer, and on the same day files copies of its amended tender offer with the offices designated in Sec. 803.10(c). Under paragraph (b) of this section, the waiting period expires (unless extended or terminated) 15 days after the receipt of the amended offer (on the 20th day after filing notification), since that occurs earlier than the expiration of the original waiting period (which would occur on the 30th day after filing).

4. Assume that "A" makes a cash tender offer for shares of corporation B and files notification. Six days later, "A" amends the tender offer and adds voting securities as consideration, and on the same day files copies of the amended tender offer with the offices designated in Sec. 803.10(c). Under paragraph (c) of this section, the waiting period expires (unless extended or terminated) on the 30th day following the date of filing of notification (determined under Sec.

803.10(c)), since that occurs later than the 15th day after receipt of the amended tender offer (which would occur on the 21st day).

Sec. 802.30 Intraperson transactions.

An acquisition (other than the formation of a joint venture or other corporation the voting securities of which will be held by two or more persons) in which, by reason of holdings of voting securities, the acquiring and acquired persons are (or as a result of formation of a wholly owned entity will be) the same person, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act.

Examples: 1. Corporation A merges its two wholly owned subsidiaries S1 and S2. The transaction is exempt under this section.

2. Corporation B creates a new wholly owned subsidiary. The transaction is exempt under this section.

3. Corporation A, which controls corporation B by a contract giving A the power to name a majority of B's directors, but which holds no voting securities of B, proposes to acquire 15 percent of B's voting securities. The transaction is not exempt under this section, since "A" and "B" are not the same person "by reason of holdings of voting securities."

4. Corporation A repurchases a portion of its voting securities in a series of transactions involving numerous sellers. All of these acquisitions are exempt under this section. The redemption or retirement of securities would likewise be exempt under this section.

5. Corporations A and B (which are not included within the same person) form a new corporation, C. A and B will each hold C's voting securities upon formation. This section is inapplicable, and the acquisitions of C's voting securities by A and B are not exempt.

Sec. 802.31 Acquisitions of convertible voting securities.

Acquisitions of convertible voting securities shall be exempt from the requirements of the act.

Example: This section applies regardless of the dollar value of the convertible voting securities held or to be acquired. Note, however, that subsequent conversions of convertible voting securities may be subject to the requirements of the act. See Sec. 801.32.

Sec. 802.35 Acquisitions by employee trusts.

An acquisition of voting securities shall be exempt from the notification requirements of the act if:

- (a) The securities are acquired by a trust that meets the qualifications of section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code;
- (b) The trust is controlled by a person that employs the beneficiaries; and
- (c) The voting securities acquired are those of that person or an entity within that person.

Examples: 1. Company A establishes a trust for its employees that meets the qualifications of section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code. Company A has the power to designate the trustee of the trust. That trust then acquires 30% of the voting securities of Company A for $120 million. Later, the trust acquires 20% of the stock of Company B, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Company A, for $58 million. Neither acquisition is reportable.

2. Assume that in the example above, ``A" has total assets of $100 million. ``C" also has total assets of $100 million and is not controlled by Company A. The trust controlled by Company A plans to acquire 40 percent of the voting securities of Company C for $80 million. Since Company C is not included within ``A," ``A" must observe the requirements of the act before the trust makes the acquisition of Company C's shares.

Sec. 802.40 Exempt formation of joint venture or other corporations.

Acquisitions of the voting securities of a joint venture or other corporation at the time of formation under Sec. 801.40 shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if the joint venture or other corporation will be not for profit within the meaning of sections 501(c)(1)-(4), (6)-(15), (17)-(20) or (d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 802.41 Joint venture or other corporations at time of formation.

Whenever any person(s) contributing to the formation of a joint venture or other corporation are subject to the requirements of the act by reason of Sec. 801.40, the joint venture or other corporation need not file the notification required by the act and Sec. 803.1.

Examples: 1. Corporations A and B, each having sales of $200 million, each propose to contribute $80 million in cash in exchange for 50 percent of the voting securities of a new corporation, N. Under this section, the new corporation need not file notification, although both ``A" and ``B" must do so and observe the waiting period prior to receiving any voting securities of N.

2. In addition to the facts in example 1 above, A and B have agreed that upon creation N will purchase 100 percent of the voting securities of corporation C for $55 million. Because N's purchase of C is not a transaction in connection with N's formation, and because in any event C is not a contributor to the formation of N, ``A," ``B" and ``C" must file with respect to the proposed acquisition of C and must observe the waiting period.

[43 FR 33544, July 31, 1978, as amended at 52 FR 7082, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 802.42 Partial exemption for acquisitions in connection with the formation of certain joint ventures or other corporations.

(a) Whenever one or more of the contributors in the formation of a joint venture or other corporation which otherwise would be subject to the requirements of the act by reason of Sec. 801.40 are exempt from these requirements under Section 7A(c)(8), any other contributor in the formation which is subject to the act and not exempt under Section 7A(c)(8) need not file a Notification and Report Form, provided that no less than 30 days prior to the date of consummation any such contributor claiming this exemption has submitted an affidavit to the Federal Trade Commission and to the Assistant Attorney General stating its good faith intention to make the proposed acquisition and asserting the applicability of this exemption.

(b) Persons relieved of the requirement to file a Notification and Report Form pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section remain subject to all other provisions of the act and these rules.

[48 FR 34436, July 29, 1983]

Sec. 802.50 Acquisitions of foreign assets or of voting securities of a foreign issuer by United States persons)

(a) Assets. In a transaction in which assets located outside the United States are being acquired by a U.S. person:

(1) The acquisition of assets located outside the United States, to which no sales in or into the United States are attributable, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act; and

(2) The acquisition of assets located outside the United States, to which sales in or into the United States are attributable, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act unless as a result of the acquisition the acquiring person would hold assets of the acquired person to which such sales aggregating $25 million or more during the acquired person's most recent fiscal year were attributable.

Examples: 1. Assume that ``A" and ``B" are both U.S. persons. ``A" proposes selling to ``B" a manufacturing plant located abroad. Sales in or into the United States attributable to the plant totaled $8 million in the most recent fiscal year. The transaction is exempt under this paragraph.

2. Sixty days after the transaction in example 1, ``A" proposes to sell to ``B" a second manufacturing plant located abroad; sales in or into the United States attributable to this plant totaled $20 million in the most recent fiscal year. Since ``B" would be acquiring the second plant within 180 days of the first plant, both plants would be considered assets of ``A" now held by ``B". See Sec. 801.13(b)(2). Since the total annual sales in or into the United States exceed $215 million, the acquisition of the second plant would not be exempt under this paragraph.

(b) Voting securities. An acquisition of voting securities of a foreign issuer by a U.S. person shall be exempt from the requirements of the act unless the issuer (including all entities controlled by the issuer) either:

(1) Holds assets located in the United States (other than investment assets, voting or nonvoting securities of another person, and assets included pursuant to Sec. 801.40(c)(2)) having an aggregate book value of $15 million or more; or

(2) Made aggregate sales in or into the United States of $25 million or more in its most recent fiscal year.

Example: ``A," a U.S. person, is to acquire the voting securities of C, a foreign issuer. C has no assets in the United States, but made aggregate sales into the United States of $27 million in the most recent fiscal year. The transaction is not exempt under this section.

[43 FR 33544, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34437, July 29, 1983]

Sec. 802.51 Acquisitions by foreign persons.

An acquisition by a foreign person shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if:

(a) The acquisition is of assets located outside the United States;

(b) The acquisition is of voting securities of a foreign issuer, and will not confer control of:

(1) An issuer which holds assets located in the United States (other than investment assets, voting or nonvoting securities of another person, and assets included pursuant to Sec. 801.40(c)(2)) having an aggregate book value of $15 million or more, or

(2) A U.S. issuer with annual net sales or total assets of $25 million or more;

(c) The acquisition is of less than $15 million of assets located in the United States (other than investment assets); or

(d) The acquired person is also a foreign person, the aggregate annual sales of the acquiring and acquired persons in or into the United States are less than $110 million, and the aggregate total assets of the acquiring and acquired persons located in the United States (other than investment assets, voting or nonvoting securities of another person, and assets included pursuant to Sec. 801.40(c)(2)) are less than $110 million.

Examples: 1. Assume that ``A" and ``B" are foreign persons with aggregate annual sales in or into the United States of $200 million. If ``A" acquires the assets of ``B," and if no assets in the United States or voting securities of U.S. issuers will be acquired, the transaction is exempt under paragraphs (a) and (c).

2. In example 1, assume that ``A" is acquiring ``B's" stock and that included within ``B" is issuer C, a U.S. issuer whose total assets are valued at $27 million. Since C's voting securities will be acquired indirectly, and since ``A" thus will be acquiring control of a U.S. issuer with total assets of more than $25 million, the acquisition cannot be exempt under this section.

3. In the previous examples, assume that ``A" is a U.S. person. This section does not apply, since the acquiring person must be a foreign person.

[43 FR 33544, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34437, July 29, 1983]

Sec. 802.52 Acquisitions by or from foreign governmental corporations.

An acquisition shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if:

(a) The ultimate parent entity of either the acquiring person or the acquired person is controlled by a foreign state, foreign government, or agency thereof; and

(b) The acquisition is of assets located within that foreign state or of voting securities of an issuer organized under the laws of that state.

Example: The government of foreign country X has decided to sell assets of its wholly owned corporation, B, all of which are located in foreign country X. The buyer is "A," a U.S. person. Regardless of the aggregate annual sales in or into the United States attributable to the assets of B, the transaction is exempt under this section. (If such aggregate annual sales were less than $10 million, the transaction would also be exempt under Sec. 802.50.)

Sec. 802.53 Certain foreign banking transactions.

An acquisition which requires the consent or approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under section 25 or section 25(a) of the Federal Reserve Act, 12 U.S.C. 601, 615, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if copies of all information and documentary material filed with the Board of Governors are contemporaneously filed with the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General at least 30 days prior to consummation of the acquisition. In lieu of such information and documentary material or any portion thereof, an index describing such material may be provided in the manner authorized by Sec. 802.6(a).

[43 FR 33544, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34435, July 29, 1983]

Sec. 802.60 Acquisitions by securities underwriters.

An acquisition of voting securities by a person acting as a securities underwriter, in the ordinary course of business, and in the process of underwriting, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act.

Sec. 802.63 Certain acquisitions by creditors and insurers.

(a) Creditors. An acquisition of collateral or receivables, or an acquisition in foreclosure, or upon default, or in connection with the establishment of a lease financing, or in connection with a bona fide debt work-out shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if made by a creditor in a bona fide credit transaction entered into in the ordinary course of the creditor's business.

(b) Insurers. An acquisition pursuant to a condition in a contract of insurance relating to fidelity, surety, or casualty obligations shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if made by an insurer in the ordinary course of business.

Examples: 1. A bank makes a loan and takes actual or constructive possession of collateral in any form. Since the bank is not the beneficial owner of the collateral, the bank's receipt of it is not an acquisition which is subject to the requirements of the act. However, if upon default the bank becomes the beneficial owner of the collateral, that acquisition is exempt under this section.

2. This section exempts only the acquisition by the creditor or insurer, and not the subsequent disposition of the assets or voting securities. If a creditor or insurer sells voting securities or assets that have come into its possession in a transaction which is exempt under this section, the requirements of the act may apply to that disposition.

Sec. 802.64 Acquisitions of voting securities by certain institutional investors.

(a) Institutional investor. For purposes of this section, the term institutional investor means any entity of the following type:

- (1) A bank within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. 80b-2(a)(2);
- (2) Savings bank;
- (3) Savings and loan or building and loan company or association;
- (4) Trust company;
- (5) Insurance company;
- (6) Investment company registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. 80a-1 et seq.);
- (7) Finance company;
- (8) Broker-dealer within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(4) or (a)(5);
- (9) Small Business Investment Company or Minority Enterprise Small Business Investment Company regulated by the U.S. Small Business Administration pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 662;
- (10) A stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing trust qualified under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code;
- (11) Bank holding company within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. 1841;
- (12) An entity which is controlled directly or indirectly by an institutional investor and the activities of which are in the ordinary course of business of the institutional investor;
- (13) An entity which may supply incidental services to entities which it controls directly or indirectly but which performs no operating functions, and which is otherwise engaged only in holding controlling interests in institutional investors; or
- (14) A nonprofit entity within the meaning of sections 501(c) (1) through (4), (6) through (15), (17) through (20), or (d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Exemption. An acquisition of voting securities shall be exempt from the requirements of the act, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, if:

- (1) Made directly by an institutional investor;
- (2) Made in the ordinary course of business;

- (3) Made solely for the purpose of investment; and
- (4) As a result of the acquisition the acquiring person would hold fifteen percent or less of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer.

(c) Exception to exemption. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this section:

(1) No acquisition of voting securities of an institutional investor of the same type as any entity included within the acquiring person shall be exempt under this section; and

(2) No acquisition by an institutional investor shall be exempt under this section if any entity included within the acquiring person which is not an institutional investor holds any voting securities of the issuer whose voting securities are to be acquired.

Examples: 1. Assume that A and its subsidiary, B, are both institutional investors as defined in paragraph (a) of this section, that X is not, and that the conditions set forth in subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of paragraph (b) of this section are satisfied. Either A or B may acquire voting securities of X worth in excess of $50 million as long as the aggregate amount held by person ``A" as a result of the acquisition does not exceed 15 percent of X's outstanding voting securities. If the aggregate holdings would exceed 15 percent, ``A" may acquire no more than $50 million worth of voting securities without being subject to the requirements of the act.

2. In example 1, assume that B plans to make the acquisition, but that corporation B's parent, corporation A, is not an institutional investor and is engaged in manufacturing. Subparagraph (c)(2) provides that acquisitions by B can never be exempt under this section if A owns any amount of X's voting securities.

3. In example 1, the exemption does not apply if X is also an institutional investor of the same type as either A or B.

4. Assume that H is a holding company which controls a life insurance company, a casualty insurer and a finance company. The life insurance company controls a data processing company which performs services for the two insurers. Any acquisition by any of these entities could qualify for exemption under this section.

5. In example 4, if H also controls a manufacturing entity, H is not an institutional investor and only the acquisitions made by the two insurance companies, the finance company and the data processing company can qualify for the exemption under this section.

Sec. 802.70 Acquisitions subject to order.

An acquisition shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if the voting securities or assets are to be acquired from an entity pursuant to and in accordance with:

- (a) An order of the Federal Trade Commission or of any Federal court in an action brought by the Federal Trade Commission or the Department of Justice;
- (b) An Agreement Containing Consent Order that has been accepted by the Commission for public comment, pursuant to the Commission's Rules of Practice; or

(c) A proposal for a consent judgment that has been submitted to a Federal court by the Federal Trade Commission or the Department of Justice and that is subject to public comment.

[63 FR 34594, June 25, 1998]

Sec. 802.71 Acquisitions by gift, intestate succession or devise, or by irrevocable trust.

Acquisitions resulting from a gift, intestate succession, testamentary disposition or transfer by a settlor to an irrevocable trust shall be exempt from the requirements of the act.

Authority: Sec. 7A(d), Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. 18A(d), as added by sec. 201, Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, Pub. L. 94-435, 90 Stat. 1390.

Source: 43 FR 33548, July 31, 1978, unless otherwise noted.

Sec. 803.1 Notification and Report Form.

(a) The notification required by the act shall be the Notification and Report Form set forth in the appendix to this part (803), as amended from time to time. All acquiring and acquired persons required to file notification by the act and these rules shall do so by completing and filing the Notification and Report Form, or a photostatic or other equivalent reproduction thereof, in accordance with the instructions thereon and these rules. Copies of the Notification and Report Form may be obtained in person from the Public Reference Branch, Room 130, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., or by writing to the Premerger Notification Office, Room 303, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, DC 20580. The Notification and Report Form also can be downloaded from the Federal Trade Commission's web site at www.ftc.gov.

(b) Any person filing notification may, in addition to the submissions required by this section, submit any other information or documentary material which such person believes will be helpful to the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General in assessing the impact of the acquisition upon competition.

Sec. 803.2 Instructions applicable to Notification and Report Form.

(a) The notification required by the act shall be filed by the preacquisition ultimate parent entity, or by any entity included within the person authorized by such preacquisition ultimate parent entity to file notification on its behalf. In the case of a natural person required by the act to file notification, such notification may be filed by his or her legal representative: Provided however, that notwithstanding Secs. 801.1(c)(2) and 801.2, only one notification shall be filed by or on behalf of a natural person, spouse and minor children with respect to an acquisition as a result of which more than one such natural person will hold voting securities of the same issuer.

Example: Jane Doe, her husband and minor child collectively hold more than 50 percent of the shares of family corporation F. Therefore, Jane Doe (or her husband or minor child) is the "ultimate parent entity" of a "person" composed to herself (or her husband or minor child) and F; see paragraphs (a)(3), (b) and (c)(2) of Sec. 801.1. If corporation F is to acquire corporation X, under this paragraph only one notification is to be filed by Jane Doe, her husband and minor child collectively.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section and paragraph (c) of this section, (1) items 5-8 and the appendix to the Notification and Report Form must be completed--

(i) By acquiring persons, with respect to all entities included within the acquiring person;

(ii) By acquired persons, in the case of an acquisition of assets, only with respect to the assets to be acquired;

(iii) By acquired persons, in the case of an acquisition of voting securities, with respect to only the issuer whose voting securities are being acquired, and all entities controlled by such issuer; and

(iv) By persons which are both acquiring and acquired persons, separately in the manner that would be required of acquiring and acquired persons under this paragraph, if different.

(2) For purposes of items 7 and 8 of the Notification and Report Form, the acquiring person shall regard the acquired person in the manner described in paragraphs (b)(1) (ii) and (iii) of this section.

Example: Person ``A" is comprised of entities separately engaged in grocery retailing, auto rental, and coal mining. Person ``B" is comprised of entities separately engaged in wholesale magazine distribution, auto rental and book publishing. ``A" proposes to purchase 100 percent of the voting securities of ``B" 's book publishing subsidiary. For purposes of item 5, under clause (b)(1)(i), ``A" reports the activities of all its entities; under clause (b)(1)(iii), ``B" reports only the operations of its book publishing subsidiary. For purposes of items 7 and 8, under paragraph (b) (2) of this section, ``A" must regard ``B" as consisting only of its book publishing subsidiary and must disregard the fact that ``A" and ``B" are both engaged in the auto rental business.

(c) In response to items 5, 7, and 8 and the appendix to the Notification and Report Form--

(1) Information shall be supplied only with respect to operations conducted within the United States; and

(2) Information need not be supplied with respect to assets or voting securities to be acquired, the acquisition of which is exempt from the requirements of the act.

(d) The term dollar revenues, as used in the Notification and Report Form, means value of shipments for manufacturing operations, and sales, receipts, revenues, or other appropriate dollar value measure for operations other than manufacturing, f.o.b. the plant or establishment less returns, after discounts and allowances and excluding freight charges and excise taxes. Dollar revenues including delivery may be supplied if delivery is an integral part of the sales price. Dollar revenues include interplant transfers.

(e) A person filing notification may incorporate by reference only documentary materials required to be filed in response to item 4(a) of the Notification and Report Form and annual reports required to be filed in response to item 4(b), which were previously submitted with a filing by the same person and which are the most recent versions available; except that when the same parties file for a higher notification threshold no more than 90 days after having made filings with respect to a lower threshold, each party may incorporate by reference in the subsequent filing any documents or information in its earlier filing provided that the documents and information are the most recent available.

Sec. 803.3 Statement of reasons for noncompliance.

A complete response shall be supplied to each item on the Notification and Report Form and to any request for additional information pursuant to Section 7A(e) and Sec. 803.20. Whenever the person filing notification is unable to supply a complete response, that person shall provide, for each item for which less than a complete response has been supplied, a statement of reasons for noncompliance. The statement of reasons for noncompliance shall contain all information upon which a person relies in explanation of its noncompliance and shall include at least the following:

(a) Why the person is unable to supply a complete response;

(b) What information, and what specific documents or categories of documents, would have been required for a complete response;

(c) Who, if anyone, has the required information, and specific documents or categories of documents; and a description of all efforts made to obtain such information and documents, including the names of persons who searched for required information and documents, and where the search was conducted. If no such efforts were made, provide an explanation of the reasons why, and a description of all efforts necessary to obtain required information and documents;

(d) Where noncompliance is based on a claim of privilege, a statement of the claim of privilege and all facts relied on in support thereof, including the identity of each document, its author, addressee, date, subject matter, all recipients of the original and of any copies, its present location, and who has control of it.

Sec. 803.4 Foreign persons refusing to file notification.

(a) In an acquisition to which Sec. 801.30 does not apply, and in which no assets (other than investment assets) located in the United States and no voting securities of a United States issuer will be acquired directly or indirectly, if a foreign acquired person refuses to file notification, then any other person which is a party to the acquisition may file notification on behalf of the foreign person. Such notification shall constitute the notification required of the foreign person by the act and these rules.

(b) Any person filing on behalf of the foreign person pursuant to this section must state in the affidavit required by Sec. 803.5(b) that such foreign person has refused to file notification and must explain all efforts made by the person filing on behalf of the foreign person to obtain compliance with the act and these rules by such foreign person.

(c) Any notification filed on behalf of a foreign person pursuant to this section must contain all information and documentary material reasonably available to the person filing on behalf of the foreign person which such foreign person would be required to provide. Whenever information or documentary material is not reasonably available, the person filing on behalf of the foreign person shall so indicate on the Notification and Report Form, and need not supply the statement of reasons for noncompliance required by Sec. 803.3.

(d) Any foreign person on whose behalf notification has been filed by another person pursuant to this section shall be a "person filing notification" for purposes of the act and these rules. Nothing in this section shall exempt a foreign person from the requirements of the act or these rules with respect to a request for additional information or an extension of the waiting period pursuant to Section 7A(e) and these rules.

Sec. 803.5 Affidavits required.

(a)(1) Section 801.30 acquisitions. For acquisitions to which Sec. 801.30 applies, the notification required by the act from each acquiring person shall contain an affidavit, attached to the front of the notification, attesting that the issuer whose voting securities are to be acquired has received notice in writing by certified or registered mail, by wire or by hand delivery, at its principal executive offices, of:

- (i) The identity of the acquiring person;
  - (ii) The fact that the acquiring person intends to acquire voting securities of the issuer;
  - (iii) The specific classes of voting securities of the issuer sought to be acquired; and if known, the number of securities of each such class that would be held by the acquiring person as a result of the acquisition or, if the number is not known, the specific notification threshold that the acquiring person intends to meet or exceed; and, if designated by the acquiring person, a higher threshold for additional voting securities it may hold in the year following the expiration of the waiting period;
  - (iv) The fact that the acquisition may be subject to the act, and that the acquiring person will file notification under the act with the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General;
  - (v) The anticipated date of receipt of such notification under Sec. 803.10(c); and
  - (vi) The fact that the person within which the issuer is included may be required to file notification under the act.
- (2) The affidavit required by this paragraph must also state the good faith intention of the person filing notification to make the acquisition, and, in the case of a tender offer, that the intention to make the tender offer has been publicly announced.

Example: 1. This paragraph permits the tender offeror to file notification at any time after the intention to make the tender offer has been publicly announced.

In examples 2-5 assume that one percent of B's shares are valued at $15 million.

2. "A" holds 100,000 shares of the voting securities of Company B. "A" has a good faith intention to acquire an additional 900,000 shares of Company B's voting securities. "A" states in its notice to B, inter alia, that as a result of the acquisition it will hold 1,000,000 shares. If 1,000,000 shares of Company B represent 20 percent of Company B's outstanding voting securities, the statement will be deemed by the enforcement agencies a notification for the $100 million threshold.

3. Company A intends to acquire voting securities of Company B. "A" does not know exactly how many shares it will acquire, but it knows it will definitely acquire $51 million worth and may acquire 50 percent of Company B's shares. "A"'s notice to the acquired person would meet the requirements of Sec. 803.5(a)(1)(iii) if it states, inter alia, either: "Company A has a present good faith intention to acquire $51 million of the outstanding voting securities of Company B, and depending on market conditions, may acquire more of the voting securities of Company B and thus designates the 50 percent threshold," or "Company A has a present good faith intention to acquire $51 million of the outstanding voting securities of Company B, and depending on market conditions may acquire 50 percent or more of the voting securities of Company B." The Commission would deem either of these statements as intending to give notice for the 50 percent threshold.

4. ``A" states, inter alia, that, ``depending on market conditions, it may acquire 100 percent of the shares of B." ``A"'s notice does not comply with Sec. 803.5 because it does not state an intent to meet or exceed any notification threshold. ``A" 's filing will be considered deficient within the meaning of Sec. 803.10(c)(2).

5. ``A" states, inter alia, that it has commenced a tender offer for ``up to 55 percent of the outstanding voting securities of Company B." ``A" 's notice does not comply with Sec. 803.5 because use of the term ``up to" does not state an intent to meet or exceed any notification threshold. The filing will therefore be considered deficient within the meaning of Sec. 803.10(c)(2).

(3) The affidavit required by this paragraph must have attached to it a copy of the written notice received by the acquired person pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) of this section.

(b) Non-section 801.30 acquisitions. For acquisitions to which Sec. 801.30 does not apply, the notification required by the act shall contain an affidavit, attached to the front of the notification, attesting that a contract, agreement in principle or letter of intent to merge or acquire has been executed, and further attesting to the good faith intention of the person filing notification to complete the transaction.

[43 FR 33548, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34439, July 29, 1983; 52 FR 7082, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 803.6 Certification.

(a) The notification required by the act shall be certified:

- (1) In the case of a partnership, by any general partner thereof;
- (2) In the case of a corporation, by any officer or director thereof;
- (3) In the case of a person lacking officers, directors, or partners, by any individual exercising similar functions;
- (4) In the case of a natural person, by such natural person or his or her legal representative;
- (5) In the case of the estate of a deceased natural person, by any duly authorized legal representative of such estate.

(b) Additional information or documentary material submitted in response to a request pursuant to Section 7A(e) and Sec. 803.20 shall be accompanied by a certification in the format appearing at the end of the Notification and Report Form, completed in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section by the person or individual to whom it was directed.

(c) In all cases, the certifying individual must possess actual authority to make the certification on behalf of the person filing notification.

Sec. 803.7 Expiration of notification.

Notification with respect to an acquisition shall expire 1 year following the expiration of the waiting period. If the acquiring person's holdings do not, within such time period, meet or exceed the notification threshold with respect to which the notification was filed, the requirements of the act must thereafter be observed with respect to any notification threshold not met or exceeded.

Example: A files notification that $125 million of the voting securities of corporation B are to be acquired. One year after the expiration of the waiting period, A has acquired only $95 million of B's voting securities. Although Sec. 802.21 will permit ``A" to purchase any amount of B's voting securities short of $100 million within 5 years from the expiration of the waiting period, A's holdings may not meet or exceed the $100 million notification threshold without ``A" and ``B" again filing notification and observing a waiting period.

Sec. 803.8 Foreign language documents.

(a) Whenever at the time of filing a Notification and Report Form there is an English language outline, summary, extract or verbatim translation of any information or of all or portions of any documentary materials in a foreign language required to be submitted by the act or these rules, all such English language versions shall be filed along with the foreign language information or materials.

(b) Documentary materials or information in a foreign language required to be submitted in responses to a request for additional information or documentary material shall be submitted with verbatim English language translations, or all existing English language versions, or both, as specified in such request.

Sec. 803.9 Filing fee.

(a) Each acquiring person shall pay the filing fee required by the act to the Federal Trade Commission, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section. No additional fee is to be submitted to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice.

Examples: 1. "A" wishes to acquire voting securities issued by B, where the greater of the acquisition price and the market price is $64 million, pursuant to Sec. 801.10. When "A" files notification for the transaction, it must indicate the $50 million threshold and pay a filing fee of $45,000 because the aggregate total amount of the acquisition is less than $100 million, but greater than $50 million.

2. "A" acquires $40 million of assets from "B." The parties meet the size of person criteria of Section 7A(a)(2)(B), but the transaction is not reportable because it does not exceed the $50 million size-of-transaction threshold of that provision. Two months later "A" acquires additional assets from “B” valued at $90 million. Pursuant to the aggregation requirements of Sec. 801.13(b)(2)(ii), the aggregate total amount of “B’s” assets that “A” will hold as a result of the second acquisition is $130 million. Accordingly, when “A” files notification for the second transaction, “A” must indicate the $100 million threshold and pay a filing fee of $125,000 because the aggregate total amount of the acquisition is less than $500 million, but not less than $100 million.

3. “A” acquires $60 million of voting securities issued by B after submitting its notification and $45,000 filing fee and indicates the $50 million threshold. Two years later, “A” files to acquire additional voting securities issued by B valued at $50 million because it will exceed the next higher reporting threshold (see Sec. 801.1(h)). Assuming the second transaction is reportable and the value of its initial holdings is unchanged (see Sec. 801.13(a)(2) and 801.10(c)), the provisions of Sec. 801.13(a)(1) require that “A” report that the value of the second transaction is $110 million because “A” must aggregate previously acquired securities in calculating the value of B’s voting securities that it will hold as a result of the second acquisition. “A” should pay a filing fee of $125,000.

4. “A” signs a contract with a stated purchase price of $110 million, subject to adjustments, to acquire all of the assets of “B.” If the amount of adjustments can be reasonably estimated, the acquisition price -- as adjusted to reflect that estimate -- is determined. If the amount of adjustments cannot be reasonably estimated, the acquisition price is undetermined. In either case the board or its delegee must also determine in good faith the fair market value. (Sec. 801.10(b) states that the value of an asset acquisition is to be the fair market value or the acquisition price, if determined and greater than fair market value.) “A” files notification and submits a $45,000 filing fee. “A’s” decision to pay that fee may be justified on either of two bases, and “A” should submit an attachment to the Notification and Report Form explaining the valuation. First, “A” may have concluded that the acquisition price can be reasonably estimated to be $98 million, because of anticipated adjustments -- e.g., based on due diligence by “A’s” accounting firm indicating that one third of the inventory is not saleable. If fair market value is also determined in good faith to be less than $100 million, the $45,000 fee is appropriate. Alternatively, “A” may conclude that because the adjustments cannot reasonably be estimated, acquisition price is undetermined. If so, “A” would base the valuation on the good faith determination of fair market value. The acquiring party’s execution of the Certification also attests to the good faith valuation of the value of the transaction.

5. “A” contracts to acquire all of the assets of “B” for $1 billion. The assets include hotels, office buildings, and rental retail property with a total value of $850 million, all of which are exempted by Sec. 802.2. Sec. 802.2 directs that these assets are exempt from the requirements of the act and that reporting requirements for the transaction should be determined by analyzing the remainder of the acquisition as if it were a separate transaction. Furthermore, Sec. 801.15(a)(2) states that those exempt assets are never held as a result of the acquisition. Accordingly, the aggregate amount of the transaction is $150 million. “A” will be liable for a filing fee of $125,000, rather than $280,000, because the value of the transaction is not less than $100 million but less than $500 million. Note, however, that “A” must include an attachment in its Notification and Report Form setting out both the $1 billion total purchase price and the basis for its determination that the aggregate total amount of the acquisition under the rules is $150 million rather than $1 billion, in accordance with the Instructions to the Form.

6. “A” acquires coal reserves from “B” valued at $150 million. No notification or filing fee is required because the acquisition is exempted by Sec. 802.3(b). Three months later, “A” proposes to acquire additional coal reserves from “B” valued at $450 million. This transaction is subject to the notification requirements of the act because the value of the acquisition exceeds the $200 million limitation on the exemption in Sec. 802.3(b). As a result of Sec. 801.13(b)(2)(ii), the prior $150 million acquisition must be added because the additional $450 million of coal reserves were acquired from the same person within 180 days of the initial acquisition. Because aggregating the two acquisitions exceeds the $200 million exemption threshold, Sec. 801.15(b) directs that “A” will also hold the previously exempt $150 million acquisition; thus, the aggregate amount held as a result of the $450 million acquisition is $600 million. Accordingly, “A” must file notification to acquire the coal reserves valued at $600 million and pay a filing fee of $280,000.

(b) For a transaction described by Sec. 801.2 (d)(2)(iii), the parties shall pay only one filing fee. In accordance with Sec. 801.2(d)(2)(iii), both parties to a consolidation are acquiring and acquired persons and must submit a Notification and Report Form where the transaction meets the reporting requirements of that act; however, only one filing fee is required in connection with such a transaction, and is payable by either party to the transaction. The filing fee is based on the greater of the two sizes of transaction in the consolidation.

(c) For a reportable transaction in which the acquiring entity has two ultimate parent entities, both ultimate parent entities are acquiring persons; however, if the responses for both ultimate parent entities would be the same for items 5 through 8 of the Notification and Report Form, only one filing fee is required in connection with the transaction.

(d) Manner of Payment. Fees may be paid by United States postal money order, bank money order, bank cashier’s check, certified check or by electronic wire transfer (EWT). The fee must be paid in U.S. currency.

(1) Fees paid by money order or check shall be made payable to the “Federal Trade Commission”, omitting the name or title of any official of the Commission, and shall be submitted to the Premerger Notification Office of the Federal Trade Commission along with the Notification and Report Form.

(2) Fees paid by EWT shall be deposited to the Treasury’s account at the New York Federal Reserve Bank. Specific instructions for making EWT payments are contained in the Instructions to the Notification and Report Form.

(e) Refunds. Except as provided in this paragraph, no filing fee received by the Commission will be returned to the payer and no part of the filing fee shall be refunded. The filing fee shall be refunded only if the Commission's staff determines, based on the information and representations contained in the filing person's notification, that premerger notification was not required by the act. Once the Commission's staff has determined that the notification was required, the filing fee shall not be refunded even if it appears at the time of consummation that the transaction does not meet the reporting requirements established in the act.

[66 FR 8695, February 1, 2001]

Sec. 803.10 Running of time.

(a) Beginning of waiting period. The waiting period required by the act shall begin on the date of receipt of the notification required by the act, in the manner provided by these rules (or, if such notification is not completed, the notification to the extent completed and a statement of the reasons for such noncompliance in accordance with Sec. 803.3) from:

- (1) In the case of acquisitions to which Sec. 801.30 applies, the acquiring person;
- (2) In the case of the formation of a joint venture or other corporation covered by Sec. 801.40, all persons contributing to the formation of the joint venture or other corporation that are required by the act and these rules to file notification;
- (3) In the case of all other acquisitions, all persons required by the act and these rules to file notification.

(b) Expiration of waiting period.

(1) Subject to paragraph (3)(b) of this section, for purposes of Section 7A(b)(1)(B), the waiting period shall expire at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the 30th (or in the case of a cash tender offer or of an acquisition covered by 11 U.S.C. 363(b), the 15th) calendar day (or if Sec. 802.23 applies, such other day as that section may provide) following the beginning of the waiting period as determined under paragraph (a) of this section, unless extended pursuant to Section 7A(e) and Sec. 803.20, or Section 7A(g)(2), or unless terminated pursuant to Section 7A(b)(2) and Sec. 803.11.

(2) Unless further extended pursuant to Section 7A(g)(2), or terminated pursuant to Section 7A(b)(2) and Sec. 803.11, any waiting period which has been extended pursuant to Section 7A(e)(2) and Sec. 803.20 shall, subject to paragraph (3)(b) of this section, expire at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time--

(i) On the 30th (or, in the case of a cash tender offer or of an acquisition covered by 11 U.S.C. 363(b), the 10th) day following the date of receipt of all additional information or documentary material requested from all persons to whom such requests have been directed (or, if a request is not fully complied with, the information and documentary material submitted and a statement of the reasons for such noncompliance in accordance with Sec. 803.3), by the Federal Trade Commission or Assistant Attorney General, whichever requested additional information or documentary material, at the office designated in paragraph (c) of this section, or

(ii) As provided in paragraph (b)(1) of this section, whichever is later.

(3) If any waiting period would expire on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal public holiday (as defined in 5 U.S.C. 6103(a)), then the waiting period shall be extended to 11:59 p.m. Eastern

Time of the next regular business day.

(c) Date of receipt and means of delivery. For purposes of this section the date of receipt shall be the date on which delivery is effected to the designated offices (Premerger Notification Office, Room 303, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580, and Director of Operations and Merger Enforcement, Antitrust Division, Department of Justice, Patrick Henry Building, 601 D Street, NW, Room #10013, Washington, DC 20530) during normal business hours. Delivery effected after 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on a regular business day, or at any time on any day other than a regular business day, shall be deemed effected on the next following regular business day. Delivery should be effected directly to the designated offices, either by hand or by certified or registered mail. If delivery of all required filings to all offices required to receive such filings is not effected on the same date, the date of receipt shall be the latest of the dates on which delivery is effected.

Example: In an acquisition other than a tender offer, assume that requests for additional information are issued to both the acquiring and acquired persons on the 26th day of the waiting period. One person submits the additional information on the 35th day, while the other responds on the 44th day. Under this section, the waiting period expires thirty days following the last receipt of additional information, that is, it expires on the 74th day (unless that day is a Saturday, Sunday or legal public holiday).

(2) Deficient filings. If notification or a response to a request for additional information or documentary material received by the Commission or Assistant Attorney General does not comply with these rules, the Commission or the Assistant Attorney General shall promptly notify the person filing such notification or response of the deficiencies in such filing, and the date of receipt shall be the date on which a filing which complies with these rules is received.

[43 FR 33548, July 31, 1978; 43 FR 36054, Aug. 15, 1978, as amended at 52 FR 7083, Mar. 6, 1987]

Sec. 803.11 Termination of waiting period.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, no waiting period shall be terminated pursuant to Section 7A(b)(2) unless—

(1) All notifications required to be filed with respect to the acquisition by the act and these rules (or, if such notification is not completed, the notification to the extent completed and a statement of the reasons for such noncompliance in accordance with Sec. 803.3) have been received,

(2) It has been determined that no additional information or documentary material pursuant to Section 7A(e) and Sec. 803.20 will be requested, or, if such additional information or documentary material has been requested, it (or, if a request is not fully complied with, the information and documentary material submitted and a statement of the reasons for such noncompliance in accordance with Sec. 803.3) has been received, and

(3) The Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General have concluded that neither intends to take any further action within the waiting period.

(b) Any request for additional information or documentary material pursuant to Section 7A(e) and Sec. 803.20 shall constitute a denial of all pending requests for termination of the waiting period.

(c) The Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General may in their discretion terminate a waiting period upon the written request of any person filing notification or, notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this section, sua sponte. A request for termination of the waiting period shall be sent to the offices designated in Sec. 803.10(c). Termination shall be effective upon notice to any requesting person by telephone, and such notice shall be given as soon as possible. Such notice shall also be confirmed in writing to each person which has filed notification, and notice thereof shall be published in the Federal Register in accordance with Section 7A(b)(2). The Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General also may use other means to make the termination public, prior to publication in the Federal Register in a manner that will make the information equally accessible to all members of the public.

[43 FR 33548, July 31, 1978, as amended at 54 FR 21427, May 18, 1989]

Sec. 803.20 Requests for additional information or documentary material.

(a)(1) Persons and individuals subject to request. Pursuant to Section 7A(e)(1), the submission of additional information or documentary material relevant to the acquisition may be required from one or more persons required to file notification, and, with respect to each such person, from one or more entities included therein, or from one or more officers, directors, partners, agents, or employees thereof, if so required by the same request.

Example: A request for additional information may require a corporation and, in addition, a named officer or employee to provide certain information or documents, if both the corporation and the officer or employee are named in the same request. See subparagraph (b)(3) of this section.

(2) All the information and documentary material required to be submitted pursuant to a request under paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall be supplied to the Commission or to the Assistant Attorney General, whichever made such request, at such location as may be designated in the request, or, if no such location is designated, at the office designated in Sec. 803.10(c). If such request is not fully complied with, a statement of reasons for noncompliance pursuant to Sec. 803.3 shall be provided for each item or portion of such request which is not fully complied with.

(b)(1) Who may require submission. A request for additional information or documentary material with respect to an acquisition may be issued by the Federal Trade Commission or its designee, or by the Assistant Attorney General or his or her designee, but not by both to the same person, any entities included therein, or any officers, directors, partners, agents, or employees of that person.

(2) When request effective. A request for additional information or documentary material shall be effective--

(i) In the case of a written request, upon receipt of the request by the ultimate parent entity of the person to which the request is directed (or, if another entity included within the person filed notification pursuant to Sec. 803.2(a), then by such entity), within the original 30-day (or, in the case of a cash tender offer or of an acquisition covered by 11 U.S.C. 363(b), 15-day) waiting period (or, if Sec. 802.23 applies, such other period as that section provides); or

(ii) In the case of a written request, upon notice of the issuance of such request to the person to which it is directed within the original 30-day (or, in the case of a cash tender offer or of an acquisition covered by 11 USC 363(b), 15-day) waiting period (or, if Sec. 802.23 applies, such other period as that section provides), provided that written confirmation of the request is mailed to the person to which the request is directed within the original 30-day (or, in the case of a cash tender offer or of an acquisition covered by 11 U.S.C. 363(b), 15-day) waiting period (or, if Sec. 802.23 applies, such other period as that section provides). Notice to the person to which the request is directed may be given by telephone or in person. The person filing notification shall keep a designated individual reasonably available during normal business hours throughout the waiting period at the telephone number supplied in the Notification and Report Form. Notice of a request for additional information or documentary material need be given by telephone only to that individual or to the individual designated in accordance with paragraph (b)(2)(iii) of this section. Upon the request of the individual receiving notice of the issuance of such a request, the full text of the request will be read. The written confirmation of the request shall be mailed to the ultimate parent entity of the person filing notification, or if another entity within the person filed notification pursuant to Sec. 803.2(a), then to such entity.

(iii) When the individual designated in accordance with paragraph (b)(2)(ii) of this section is not located in the United States, the person filing notification shall designate an additional individual located within the United States to be reasonably available during normal business hours throughout the waiting period through a telephone number supplied on the certification page of the Notification and Report Form. This individual shall be designated for the limited purpose of receiving notification of the issuance of requests for additional information or documentary material in accordance with the procedure described in paragraph (b)(2)(ii) of this section.

(3) Requests to natural persons. A request addressed to an individual, requiring that he or she submit additional information or documentary material, shall be transmitted to the person filing notification of which the individual is an ultimate parent entity, officer, director, partner, agent or employee, and shall be effective as to that individual when effective as to the person filing notification pursuant to paragraph (b)(2) of this section. A written copy of the request shall also be delivered to the individual by hand, or by registered or certified mail at his or her home or business address.

Example: A designee of the Federal Trade Commission sends, by certified letter which is received within the 30-day waiting period, a written request for additional information to corporation W, the ultimate parent entity within a person which filed notification. The request is effective under clause (b)(2)(i). If the letter also addressed a request for documentary material to the secretary of corporation W, a named individual, under paragraph (b)(3), the request would likewise be effective as to the individual upon receipt of the letter by W. In the latter case, the Federal Trade Commission also would send a copy of the request to the Secretary of the corporation at his or her home or business address.

(c) Waiting period extended. (1) During the time period when a request for additional information or documentary material remains outstanding to any person other than, in the case of a tender offer, the person whose voting securities are sought to be acquired by the tender offeror (or any officer, director, partner, agent or employee thereof), the waiting period shall remain in effect, even though the waiting period would have expired (see Sec. 803.10(b)) if no such request had been made.

(2) A request for additional information or documentary material to any person other than, in the case of a tender offer or of an acquisition covered by 11 U.S.C. 363(b), the person whose voting securities are being acquired pursuant to the tender offer or acquisition covered by 11 U.S.C. 363(b) (or any officer, director, partner, agent or employee thereof), shall in every instance extend the waiting period for a period of 30 (or, in the case of a cash tender offer or of an acquisition covered by 11 U.S.C. 363(b), 10) calendar days from the date of receipt (as determined under Sec. 803.10) of the additional information or documentary material requested.

Example: Acquiring person "A" desires to acquire voting securities of corporation X on a securities exchange, and files notification. Under Sec. 801.30, the waiting period begins upon filing by "A," and "X" must file within 15 days thereafter. Assume that before the end of the waiting period, the Assistant Attorney General issues a request for additional information to "X." Since the transaction is not a tender offer, under paragraph (c)(1) the waiting period is extended until "X" supplies the requested information; under paragraph (c)(2), the waiting period is extended for 30 days beyond the date on which "X" responds. Note that under Sec. 803.21 "X" is obliged to respond to the request within a reasonable time; nevertheless, the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General could, notwithstanding the pendency of the request for additional information, terminate the waiting period sua sponte pursuant to Sec. 803.11(c).

(d)(1) Identification of requests. Every request for additional information or documentary material shall be clearly identified as such, whether communicated in person, by telephone or in writing, and shall clearly identify the person, entity or entities, or individual(s) to which it is addressed.

(2) Request for clarification. No request for clarification or amplification of a response to any item on the Notification and Report Form, whether communicated in person, by telephone or in writing, shall be considered a request for additional information or documentary material within the meaning of Section 7A(e) and this section.

[43 FR 33548, July 31, 1978, as amended at 48 FR 34441, July 29, 1983]

Sec. 803.21 Additional information shall be supplied within reasonable time.

All additional information or documentary material requested pursuant to Section 7A(e) and Sec. 803.20 (or, if such request is not fully complied with, the information or documentary material submitted and a statement of the reasons for such noncompliance in accordance with Sec. 803.3) shall be supplied within a reasonable time.

Sec. 803.30 Formal and informal interpretations of requirements under the Act and the rules.

(a) The Commission staff may consider requests for formal or informal interpretations as to the obligations under the act and these rules of any party to an acquisition. A request for a formal interpretation shall be made in writing to the offices designated in Sec. 803.10(c), and shall state: (1) all facts which the applicant believes to be material, (2) the reasons why the requirements of the act are or may be applicable and (3) the question(s) that the applicant wishes resolved. The Commission staff may, in its discretion, render a formal or informal response to any request, however made, or may decline to render such advice.

(b) In the sole discretion of the staff, any request for interpretation may be referred to the Commission.

(c) Formal interpretations by the Commission staff or by the Commission shall be rendered with the concurrence of the Assistant Attorney General or his or her designee.

(d) Any formal interpretation shall be without prejudice to the right of either the Commission or the Assistant Attorney General to rescind any such interpretation rendered pursuant to this section. In the event of such rescission, the party which requested the interpretation shall be so notified in writing.

(e) The Commission shall publish a summary of formal interpretations by the Commission, and any rescissions thereof, in the Federal Register.

Sec. 803.90 Separability.

If any provision of the rules in this subchapter (H) (including the Notification and Report Form) or the application of any such provision to any person or circumstances is held invalid, neither the other provisions of the rules nor the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall be affected thereby.
